

Election of a new Bureau in 2013

The mandate of the current Bureau of the Court, which was elected in August 2007, is about to expire. Accordingly, elections will be held for both the President of the Court and the members of the Bureau. The election procedure will take place in writing.

The Court, having completed the process of re-appointing conciliators and arbitrators whose terms of office have expired, is currently reconstituted and the election of the President and of the other members of the Bureau can take place.

The election procedure will take place in accordance with Article 9 of the Rules of Procedure of the Court. Accordingly, nominations for President of the Court and for membership of the Bureau may be submitted by any member of the Court. Members of the Court are therefore invited to submit their nominations for candidates from among the appointed members, according to the published list.

Nominations for candidates must be communicated by 23 August 2013 to:
