Adjustment of the Mandate:

107th Permanent Council, PC.DEC/158, 20 March 1997

108th Permanent Council, PC.DEC/160, 27 March 1997

Update of Mandate of the Presence:

488th Permanent Council, PC.DEC/588, 18 December 2003

2. Tasks

On the basis of the reports by the Personal Representative of the Chairperson-in-Office, Dr. Franz Vranitzky, on his visits to Albania on 8 and 14 March 1997, and following the Decision No. 158 (107th Plenary Meeting of 20 March 1997), the Permanent Council in its Decision No. 160 (108th Plenary Meeting of 27 March 1997) decided to establish an OSCE presence in Albania in co-operation with the Albanian authorities and to provide the co-ordinating framework within which other international organizations can play their part in their respective areas of competence, in support of a coherent international strategy, and in facilitating improvements in the protection of human rights and basic elements of civil society.

1. In co-operation with other international organizations, such as the Council of Europe, the OSCE will provide advice and assistance, in particular in the following fields:

- Democratization, the media and human rights;
- Election preparation and monitoring.

Furthermore, the OSCE will explore other possibilities, including monitoring the collection of weapons.

The overall co-ordination of the efforts of the international community will be ensured by Dr. Vranitzky as Personal Representative of the Chairperson-in-Office. He will report to the Permanent Council on progress achieved.

[...]

2. The Permanent Council

- Has taken note of the official appeal made by the Albanian authorities to a group of countries for assistance in resolving the security situation in Albania;
- Expects any assistance to be given in accordance with the United Nations Charter and OSCE principles and in accordance with appropriate action by the United Nations Security Council;
- Expects to be informed on any further steps to be taken in this context.

In Decision No. 206 of 11 December 1997 the Permanent Council made the following adjustments to its Decision No. 160 of 27 March 1997:

The Permanent Council decides that:

- In co-operation with other international organizations, such as the Council of Europe, the OSCE will provide advice and assistance, in particular in the field of democratization, media and human rights;
- The flexible co-ordination of the efforts of the international community will be ensured by the OSCE Presence in Albania acting as a clearing-house for information on the international efforts in Albania.

Recalling Permanent Council Decisions Nos. 158, 160, 168, and 178, and taking into account the conclusions of the Rome and Brussels Conferences on Albania, the Permanent Council further decides:

- To continue to provide a flexible co-ordinating framework in concert with the Albanian Government within which other international organizations can play their part in their respective areas of competence, in support of a coherent international strategy;
- That there will be semi-annual reviews of the implementation of this mandate and of the work of the OSCE in Albania.

In Decision No. 218, taken in a special session on the Kosovo crisis on 11 March 1998, the Permanent Council decided to temporarily enhance the monitoring capabilities of the OSCE Presence in Albania in order to allow for adequate observation of the borders with Kosovo, FRY, and prevention of possible crisis spillover effects. The Head of Presence will report regularly on his observations.

With the end of the Kosovo crisis in 1999, the border monitoring activities of the OSCE Presence were progressively downscaled and the border monitoring field stations were transformed into normal Field Stations.

In Decision No. 588 taken on 18 December 2003, the Permanent Council, recognizing the overall progress achieved in Albania in recent years, as well as the increased central position that the country's institutions have taken, decided to update the mandate of the OSCE Presence in Albania to reflect the developments which have taken place in the country.

Working in close consultation and co-operation with the Government of Albania, the OSCE Presence provides assistance and expertise in the following areas:

- Legislative and judicial reform, including property reform;
- Regional administrative reform;
- Electoral reform;
- Parliamentary capacity-building;
- Anti-trafficking and anti-corruption, including supporting the implementation of relevant national strategies;

The decision to establish a CSCE Monitoring Mission in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia was taken in mid-1992 in the context of the efforts to extend the European Community Monitoring Mission (ECMM) to neighbouring countries of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia to help avoid the spread of tension to their territories. A decision to explore with authorities in Skopje the possibility of dispatching similar missions under CSCE auspices was taken at the 15th Committee of Senior Officials (CSO) Meeting on 14 August 1992 (15-CSO/Journal No. 2, Annex 1).

The Steering Group on the Yugoslav Crisis worked out on 27 October 1992, the “Modalities and Financial Implications for the CSCE Spillover Monitor Mission to Skopje” which were adopted by the open-ended ad hoc Group on 28 October 1992, and approved by the 17th Meeting of the Committee of Senior Officials (CSO) on 6 November 1992 (17-CSO/Journal No. 2, Annex 3).

“Articles of Understanding Concerning CSCE Spillover Monitor Mission” were exchanged on 7 November 1992 by means of a letter from the Macedonian Minister of Foreign Relations, Mr. Denko Maleski, to the Chairperson-in-Office of the Council of Ministers of the CSCE.

The OSCE Spillover Monitor Mission to Skopje was renamed to OSCE Mission to Skopje by Permanent Council Decision No. 977 of 16 December 2010.

2. Tasks

According to the Modalities and Financial Implications as approved at the 17th CSO Meeting, the objective of the Mission is to monitor developments along the borders of the Host Country with Serbia and in other areas of the Host Country which may suffer from spillover of the conflict in the former Yugoslavia, in order to promote respect for territorial integrity and the maintenance of peace, stability and security; and to help prevent possible conflict in the region.

The above objective is specified in a mandate consisting of the following tasks:

- continue dialogue with the Governmental Authorities of the Host Party;
- establish contacts with representatives of political parties and other organizations, and with ordinary citizens;
- conduct trips to assess the level of stability and the possibility of conflict and unrest;
- engage in other activities compatible with the CSCE goals of the Mission as defined above;
- maintain a high profile in the country;
- in case of incidents, assist in establishing the facts.

The Permanent Council, in a special session on the Kosovo crisis on 11 March 1998, decided (PC.DEL/218) to temporarily enhance the monitoring capabilities of the OSCE Spillover Monitor Mission to Skopje in order to allow for adequate observation of the borders with Kosovo, FRY, and prevention of possible crisis spillover effects. The Head of Mission will report regularly on his observations.

On 22 March 2001, the Permanent Council, noting the reports of the Mission indicating an upsurge of violent actions by ethnic Albanian armed groups in the area of the northern border regions in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, decided to increase the size of the Mission by eight international personnel for a period of six months. “The additional staff members will work particularly in the border area, with a view to strengthening the capabilities of the Mission to monitor developments along the border and report, and perform other duties in accordance with the Mission’s mandate.”

On 7 June 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the size of the Mission by ten international personnel (totaling 26).

On 6 September 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the size of the Mission by 25 international personnel (totaling 51). “They will monitor and report regularly on the security situation in the host State, including: the situation in the northern border areas including illicit arms trafficking; the humanitarian situation, including the return of refugees and internally displaced persons and trafficking in human beings; the situation in sensitive places with communities not in the majority; and cases of incidents and recurrence of hostilities. They will not monitor the arms collection process or conduct operations aimed exclusively at observing compliance with the ceasefire.”

On 28 September 2001, the Permanent Council decided to further increase the personnel of the Mission on the basis of the existing mandate, by 72 international confidence-building monitors and 60 police advisers and 17 police trainers; as well as 10 international to deal with administrative and support matters:

“The monitors will contribute to the maintenance of stability and security in the country and to the building of general confidence amongst the population. They will report regularly on the security situation, including: the situation in the northern border areas including illicit arms trafficking; the humanitarian situation, including the return of refugees and internally displaced persons and trafficking in human beings; the situation in sensitive areas; and on cases of incidents and recurrence of hostilities.”

The police advisers were deployed to the sensitive areas, concurrently with the phased redeployment of the national police. “They will have no executive authority and are not to be seen as replacement for the national police or other lawful security forces in the host country. Their role would be to assist in ensuring a phased and co-ordinated redeployment by the national police. The police trainers will assist in the implementation of the Police Academy project.”

In addition to police matters and confidence-building activities, the Mission has been particularly active in media issues, decentralization and support to the Ombudsman Institution.

The Missions started their work on 8 September 1992; the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed on 28 October 1992 in Belgrade.

⁵ As worked out and preliminarily agreed upon by the CSCE Ad Hoc Group.

The Mission to Kosovo was based in Pristina (with permanent presence in Pec and Prizren), the Mission to Sandjak in Novi Pazar (with a permanent presence in Priepolje), and the Mission to Vojvodina in Subotica. The Missions had a common office in Belgrade.

The Missions were withdrawn in July 1993 after expiration of the MoU, since the FRY authorities refused the OSCE's (then the CSCE) request to prolong it.

In a special session on Kosovo on 11 March 1998, the Permanent Council decided (PC.DEC/218) to call on FRY authorities:

To accept without preconditions, an immediate return of the OSCE missions of long duration to Kosovo, Sandjak and Vojvodina, noting the return of these missions as essential for future participation in the OSCE by the FRY.

In its decision No. 401 of 11 January 2001 the Permanent Council, taking into account United Nations Security Council Resolution 1244 and welcoming the invitation of the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia for an OSCE Mission decided to establish an OSCE Mission to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. With this decision, the OSCE Missions of Long Duration in Kosovo, Sandjak and Vojvodina were formally closed.

4. Duration

According to the MoU the duration of the Missions was limited to an initial period of 6 months from the beginning of their activities; extension of this period was subject to mutual agreement by the Parties. There was no further agreement on extension thereafter.

An increase to 20 members was authorized at the 17th CSO Meeting in November 1992 and a doubling to 40 members was authorized by the CSO Vienna Group in January 1993. In reality however, the Missions never exceeded a total of 20 members.

The last appointed Head of Mission was Ambassador Tore Bøgh, Norway. Afterwards, the functions of the Head of Mission were carried out by the Chairperson-in-Office.

3. Deployment

The OSCE Kosovo Verification Mission (KVM) reached a strength of approximately 1500 international staff by February 1999 but was unable to carry out the full scope of the tasks allocated under the FRY-OSCE Agreement. The security situation in Kosovo during this period was characterized as tense. Following a steady deterioration in the security situation in the Province, the OSCE CiO, Norwegian Foreign Minister Knut Vollebaek withdrew the KVM on 20 March 1999. The KVM was then temporarily based in Skopje, the capital of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia. The bulk of its Mission members were repatriated. The Mission was temporarily organized as a Mission “Core”, responsible for administration and planning for the re-entry of an OSCE Mission to Kosovo; a Task Force in Albania to assist UNHCR with the refugee crisis and to conduct human rights investigations; and a further Task Force in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia performing similar functions. The KVM was later dissolved and the Task Force for Kosovo created in its stead by PC.DEC/296 on 8 June 1999, primarily tasked with preparing for re-deployment to Kosovo and continuing to assist the UN and other international organizations. The Task Force for Kosovo was dissolved on 1 July 1999 and replaced by the OSCE Mission in Kosovo by PC.DEC/305.

4. Duration

In its Decision No. 263, paragraph 3, the Permanent Council decided to establish the KVM for one year, with extensions upon the request of either the OSCE Chairperson-in-Office or the FRY government. The Delegation of the Russian Federation formulated an interpretative statement to paragraph 3 of the Decision, attached to the Decision. The KVM was dissolved and the Task Force for Kosovo created in its stead by PC.DEC/296 on 8 June 1999.

5. Composition

The Agreement of 16 October 1998 foresaw in part IV the following structure for the Kosovo Verification Mission:

A Director, together with headquarters staff to be determined by Verification Mission requirements.

2000 unarmed verifiers from OSCE member states will be permitted. Headquarters and support staff included in this total. The Mission may be augmented with technical experts provided by OSCE.

A headquarters in Pristina.

Field presence in locations around Kosovo to be determined by the Mission Director.

A small liaison office in Belgrade.

Part V of the Agreement Field Presence established the following provisions:

Coordination Centres will be established in the capital of each opstina in Kosovo with specific areas of responsibility, under the Mission Director located in Pristina.

Many opstina coordination centres will have one or more sub-stations in smaller towns/villages in the opstina. The number and location of sub-stations will vary from opstina to opstina, depending on the verification environment and past conflict situation.

As described above the composition of the KVM subsequently evolved during the Spring and early Summer of 1999 into those now found in the OSCE Mission in Kosovo within the UNMiK structure.

3. Deployment

The OSCE AG to Chechnya began working in Grozny on 26 April 1995 and operated from there until 16 December 1998, when the AG's international staff was evacuated to Moscow due to the deteriorating security situation. In subsequent months, the AG conducted several working visits to Grozny. Renewed armed hostilities required the remaining AG local staff to be evacuated to Ingushetia in September 1999. In December 2000 local staff moved to the new AG office in Znamenskoye in the north of Chechnya.

Since the beginning of 2001 the immediate priority of the AG's activities was to ensure the return of its international staff to Chechnya. The negotiation process that began in 2000 to solve technical problems impeding the AG's return, led to the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding on Security between the AG and the Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation. On 15 June 2001, after almost two and a half years of evacuation, the AG's international staff returned to Chechnya.

4. Duration

Initially, no limitations as to the duration of the Group's work were set. Subsequently, through a Permanent Council Decision No 454/Corr.1 of 21 December 2001 the mandate of the Group was extended for one year until 31 December 2002.

Military Monitoring Officers of the OSCE Mission to Georgia continued to operate in the areas adjacent to South Ossetia until 30 June 2009 under a separate mandate adopted by the Permanent Council under Decision No. 883 of 12 February 2009 (PC.DEC/883).

2. Tasks

According to the original Modalities and Financial Implications approved at the 18th CSO Meeting on 13 December 1992¹⁴, the objective of the Mission was to promote negotiations between the conflicting parties in Georgia which are aimed at reaching a peaceful political settlement.

At the 14th Meeting of the Permanent Committee on 29 March 1994, new Modalities were decided for an expanded CSCE Mission to Georgia, based on recommendations submitted by the Personal Representative of the Chairperson-in-Office in accordance with the Decisions of the Rome Council, which provided for a strengthening of the Mission. The original objective was complemented by a series of new objectives, namely to promote respect for human rights and assist in democratic institution building throughout the country; to monitor and promote free media principles; to facilitate co-operation with and among the parties concerned and, with their consent, to monitor the joint peacekeeping forces established under the Sochi Agreement of 24 June 1992, in order to assess whether their activities are carried out in conformity with CSCE principles, in particular those mentioned in chapter II, 3 of the Decisions of the Rome Council Meeting.

The above objectives for the expanded Mission are specified in a mandate consisting of the following points:

- 1) In relation to the Georgian-Ossetian conflict:

¹³ Subject to a silence procedure which expired on 1 April 1994, at 12 noon, without an objection.

¹⁴ As adopted on a preliminary basis by the Consultative Committee on 23 November 1993.

- facilitate the creation of a broader political framework, in which a lasting political settlement (...) can be achieved on the basis of CSCE principles and commitments;

- intensify discussions with all parties to the conflict, including through the organisation of round tables, in order to identify and seek to eliminate sources of tension and extend political reconciliation throughout the area of conflict.

Make recommendations regarding the early convening of an international conference under CSCE auspices and with the participation of the United Nations, aimed at the resolution of the conflict, including the definition of the political status of Southern Ossetia;

- in pursuit of the monitoring role concerning the joint peacekeeping forces, establish appropriate forms of contact with the military commanders of the forces within the overall context of the CSCE negotiating efforts, gather information on the military situation, investigate violations of the existing cease-fire and call local commanders' attention to possible political implications of specific military actions;

- be actively involved in the reconvened Joint Control Commission in order to facilitate co-operation with and among the parties concerned;

- establish contact with local authorities and representatives of the population and maintain a visible CSCE presence throughout the area.

2) In relation to the Georgian-Abkhaz conflict:

- ensure liaison with the United Nations operations in Abkhazia, in order to follow events closely and report regularly to the CSCE, inter alia with a view to facilitating the participation of the representative of the Chairman-in-Office, at the invitation of the United Nations, to the negotiations carried out under United Nations auspices.

3) In relation to Georgia as a whole:

- promote respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms and assist in the development of legal and democratic institutions and processes, including providing advice on the elaboration of a new constitution, the implementation of a legislation on citizenship and the establishment of an independent judiciary as well as monitoring elections;

- co-ordinate these activities with the CSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities and the ODIHR and co-operate with the Council of Europe, keeping also in touch with other international organizations active in Georgia in this field.

In addition, at the 262nd Plenary Meeting on 15 December 1999, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to expand the mandate of the OSCE Mission to Georgia to include a Border Monitoring Operation (BMO) (PC.DEC/334) “in order to observe and report on movement across the border between Georgia and the Chechen Republic of the Russian Federation, both by vehicle and on foot”. At the 373rd Plenary Meeting on 13 December 2001, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to expand the Border Monitoring Operation to the border between Georgia and the Ingush Republic of the Russian Federation (PC.DEC/450). At the 427th Plenary Meeting on 19 December 2002, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to further expand the Border Monitoring Operation to the border between Georgia and the Dagestan Republic of the Russian Federation (PC.DEC/523).

Also, at the 550th Plenary Meeting on 14 April 2005, the OSCE Permanent Council tasked the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the Training Assistance Programme (TAP) (PC.DEL/108/05/Rev.6) “in order to support the Georgian border guards in strengthening their border-management capacities and capabilities”.

Furthermore, at the 642nd Plenary Meeting on 29 June 2006, the OSCE Permanent Council tasked the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the Capacity Building Programme (CBP) (PC.DEC/731) in order to support the Georgian Border Police in the strengthening of their border management capabilities.

Following the August 2008 conflict in Georgia at the 728th Plenary Meeting on 18 August 2008, the OSCE Permanent Council, “striving to contribute to the full implementation of the six principles included in the agreement proposed by the French and Russian Presidents” decided “to increase for a minimum period of six calendar months the number of Military Monitoring Officers in the OSCE Mission to Georgia by up to one hundred” of whom “twenty will be deployed immediately in the areas adjacent to South Ossetia”, while “the rest of the additional Military Monitoring Officers will be deployed subject to a new decision of the Permanent Council on the modalities of the Military Monitoring Officers” (PC.DEC/861). At the 750th Plenary Meeting on 12 February 2009, the OSCE Permanent Council decided to extend until 30 June 2009 its Decision number 861 of 19 August 2008 (PC/DEC/883).

3. Deployment

The Mission started to work on 3 December 1992. The MoU with the Government of Georgia was signed on 23 January 1993, and the MoU with the leadership of the South Ossetian side was agreed by an exchange of letters on 1 March 1993.

The Mission operated throughout Georgia from the Headquarters established in Tbilisi. The Modalities of 29 March 1994 provided for a branch office in Tskhinvali, which became operational on 22 April 1997.

In 1997, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed between the OSCE and the UN Human Rights Office in Abkhazia, Georgia where one (at times two) OSCE officer was deployed. The MoU enabled the OSCE Mission to Georgia to implement the relevant parts of its mandate relating to the monitoring of the human rights situation in Abkhazia, while supporting the activities of the UN Human Rights Office in the region.

From 15 December 1999 until 31 December 2004 the Mission was also mandated to observe and report on movement across parts of the border between Georgia and the Russian Federation. While the area of operation of the Border Monitoring Mission (BMO) first only covered the border between Georgia and the Chechen Republic of the Russian Federation, it was expanded in subsequent years also to the Ingush and Dagestan segments of the Georgian-Russian border. The BMO then operated from its Head Office in Tbilisi, a Forward Supply Point in Telavi, eight Patrol Bases in Sno, Shatili, Girevi, Omalo, Napareuli, Kvareli, Akhalsopeli and Kabali as well as one Permanent Patrol in Assa.

From 18 April 2005 until 30 June 2006, the Mission carried out a Training Assistance Programme providing training for the Georgian Border Guards at four OSCE training centres in Lilo, Kazbegi, Lagodekhi and Omalo.

Within the framework of the Capacity Building Programme, from 1 July 2006, the Mission carried out training for the Georgian Border Police. The Capacity Building Programme was successfully completed on 30 June 2007.

During the August 2008 conflict in Georgia, the Tskhinvali Field Office of the OSCE Mission to Georgia had to be evacuated. Subsequently, the Military Monitoring Officers conducted their monitoring activities from a forward monitoring base located in Karaleti.
