HDIM OSCE, 5 October 2009

In reply to the statement of the “International Association of Independent Democrats against Authoritative Regimes” alleging violations of human rights in several cases of asylum seekers in the Czech Republic, I would like to state the following:

- 1) We have previously submitted detailed information on these cases to the said organization.
- 2) All our available information leads to the conclusion that those proceedings strictly obeyed the law and respected rights of the persons concerned.
- 3) However, should there remain any unclarities we are ready to continue discussion on this issue with the said organization.
