

Statement by the Delegation of Azerbaijan
Human Dimension Implementation Meeting Working Session 11: Tolerance and non-discrimination I
Warsaw, 26 September 2016
As delivered by Rafi Gurbanov
State Committee on Religious Associations of the Republic of Azerbaijan

Right of reply

As a land of tolerance, we see all religious and historical monuments as part of our historical heritage. That is why today Armenian Church still stands not only undamaged in the center of Baku but also renovated by the Azerbaijan Government while all mosques and other religious historical temples have been destroyed or degraded by Armenia on the occupied territories of Azerbaijan.

The model of Azerbaijan on multiculturalism is taught over 15 universities around the world.