Office in Yerevan

Yerevan, 26 March, 2007

The OSCE Office in Yerevan expresses its sincere condolences over the sudden loss of Prime Minister Andranik Margaryan to the Government of the Republic of Armenia and the Armenian people. On this sad day we recall that under Prime Minister Margarian, relations between the Office and all strata of Armenian society developed dynamically and have shown tangible achievements in promoting the values of our Organization in your country.

On behalf of the OSCE Office in Yerevan, please convey our deepest sympathy and condolences to the relatives of Mr. Andranik Margarian.

Ambassador Vladimir Pryakhin
Head of the OSCE Office in Yerevan
