Inventory of Policy Documents and Legislation adopted by OSCE participating States and Partners for Co-operation on Countering violent extremism and radicalization that lead to terrorism (VERLT)

Fourth Update

Statistical Summary of the Feedback Received by 15 December 2016

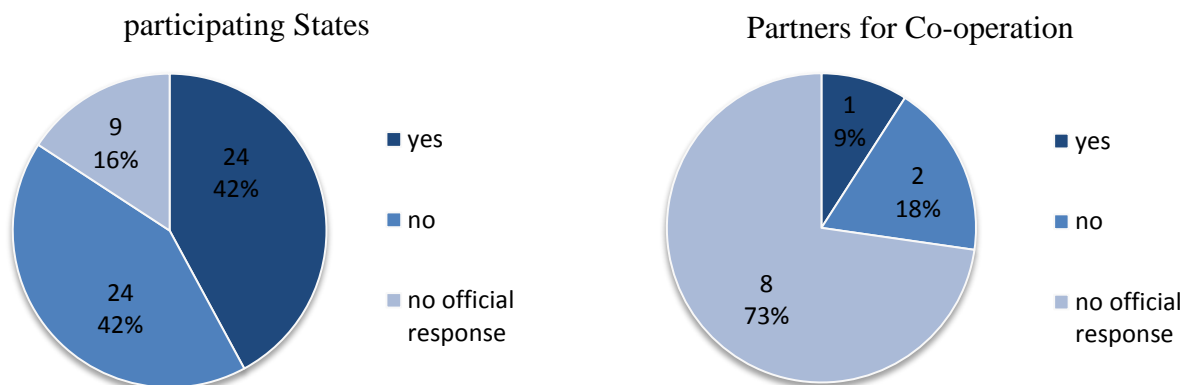

A questionnaire was circulated to OSCE participating States and Partners for Co-operation on 21 January 2014 (SEC.GAL/8/14) requesting information about national strategies or action plans adopted by participating States and Partners for Co-operation in the field of countering VERLT, as well as about pertinent legislation criminalizing incitement to commit acts of terrorism. By 15 December 2016, a total of 49 participating States and 3 Partners for Co-operation provided feedback to whole or parts of the questionnaire, as captured by the below graphs.

1) Has adopted a national policy document specifically on countering terrorism?

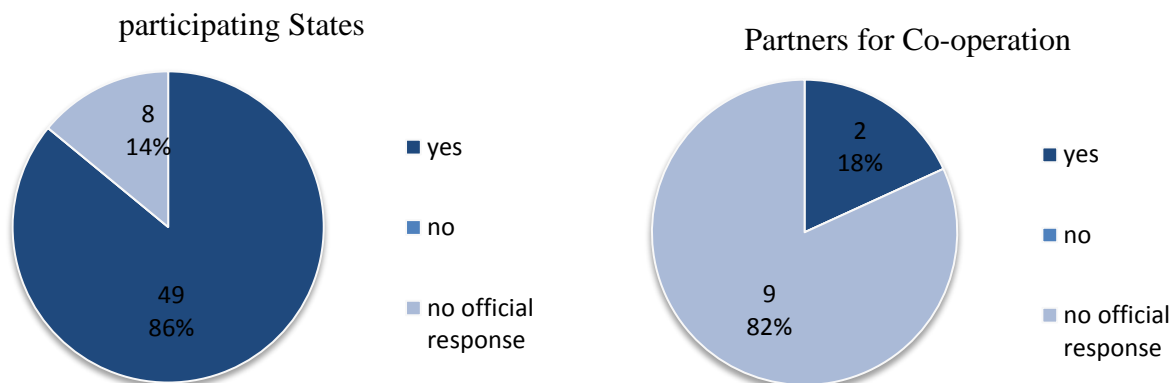

Of those 31 participating States and Partners for Co-operation having adopted a national policy document specifically on countering terrorism, 26 indicated that the document is available to the wider the public.

2) Has adopted a national strategy or action plan on countering VERLT?

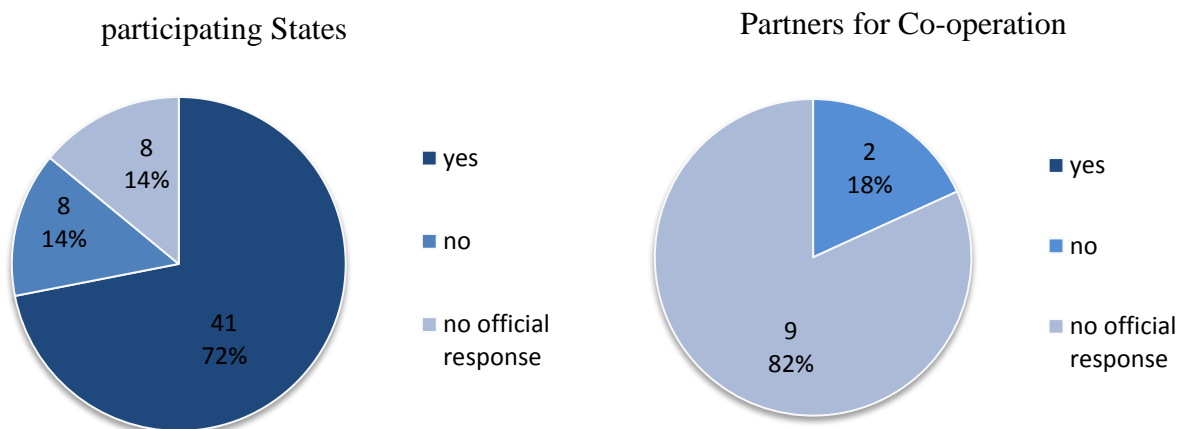

Of those 24 participating States and Partners for Co-operation having adopted a national strategy or action plan on countering VERLT, 21 indicated that the document is available to the wider public.

3.1) Has legislation in force prohibiting incitement to commit terrorist acts?

3.2) Has legislation in force specifically prohibiting incitement to commit terrorist acts?

Of those 41 participating States having legislation in force specifically prohibiting incitement to commit terrorist acts, 24 indicated that their legislation is based on a specific international convention or model law, namely the Council of Europe Convention on the Prevention of Terrorism (17 participating States) and/or the EU Council Framework Decision 2008/919/JHA of 28 November 2008 amending Framework Decision 2002/475/JHA on combating terrorism (14 participating States).
