

Head of Presence Remarks before the media, 24 May 2011

There is not a final result yet. So we should wait. I think we should be patient. On the other side, we should see how the situation will develop. So to be patient and to wait for the final result. Life goes on. First of all, this is a competition for Mayor - nothing more. There is no reason for excitement. Stay calm and wait for the end of the legal process.
