3. REGISTRATION

All media representatives who are interested to cover the work of the OSCE Summit should send to media@mfa.kz:

- a completed media registration form for each participant (see annex 1);
- one passport-type color photo sized 3.5 x 4.5 cm (JPEG format, 300 dpi resolution) with the file name formed in the following way: Surname_Name.jpg. The photo should be taken from the front, with undistorted facial expression and uncovered head.

Please note that the media accreditation will be closed after November 15, 2010. Completed registration form and a photo must be received by the MFA of the Republic of Kazakhstan before this date.

4. ACCREDITATION

Accreditation will be open from 11 October until 15 November. Accreditation forms (Annex 1) will be available on the OSCE Chairmanship website, a link to the accreditation form will be given from OSCE website. In addition, media representatives are encouraged to indicate which pools they would like to be in.

Accredited media representatives can collect their badges only in person from the Ministry of the Foreign Affairs or the Media Centre; on production of a valid passport and a valid national press card OR letter of accreditation from a recognized media organization.

Media representatives will be admitted to the Media Centre (University of Arts) and the Palace of Independence only with official yellow press badges titled as PRESS, indicating the media category: PRINT, ONLINE, PHOTO, VIDEO.

Official videographers and photographers who accompany Heads of Delegations will receive a yellow badge with sign “PRESS”. This badge entitles the holder to conduct protocol photo and video recording during arrivals/handshakes as well as to conduct photo and video recording in the Plenary Hall of the Palace of Independence throughout the whole duration of the Summit.

Yellow floaters with sign “PRESS POOL” will be provided to journalists covering specific events in the Palace of Independence. Pool journalists must be accompanied at all times by MFA Press, OSCE Press representatives and a security officer.

Media representatives will be able to collect their badges:
- at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Astana, Left bank of Ishim River, D.Kunayev Street, 31,
- and in the Media Centre (accreditation desk) located on the ground floor of the Arts University.

Contact for media accreditation:
Mr Nurbek Almashov,
Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Kazakhstan
NOTE! Deadline for accreditation is November 15. Late applications will be considered on individual basis.

Official pools

To receive an official pool accreditation, an application for press accreditation must be accompanied by an official request from a participating State or an International Organization attending the Summit.
Members of the official pool will be able to collect their badges upon arrival at the Astana airport from a liaison officer who meets the delegations.
Members of the official pool will be offered support in obtaining a visa upon official request sent to the Embassy/Diplomatic Mission of Kazakhstan in their country.
If there is no Embassy or Diplomatic mission of Kazakhstan in the country, visas will be issued upon arrival at the airports of Astana and Almaty only to official pool members who have received confirmation of their accreditation.

5. MEDIA CENTRE

Media Centre will be located on the ground floor of the Arts University.
Opening hours of the Media Centre:
From November 25 - 29 (during the Review Conference and Preparatory Conference)
From 10:00 till 20:00, local time.
From 30 November 08:00 to 2 December 23:59 the Media Centre will be open.

6. MEDIA INFORMATION DESK

The Media Information Desk at the entrance to the Media Centre will display OSCE publications in several languages, and have printed copies of the media programme available.
Requests for press briefings and interviews should be made through the OSCE Press and Public Information Section (PPIS). Advance notification is desirable.

7. POOL DESK

Media representatives will receive pool cards (yellow floaters with sign PRESS POOL) from the Pool Desk, close to the Media Information Desk. These cards give media access to the Palace of Independence, where the main Summit sessions will take place.
A programme indicating the numbers of pools, time of pools gathering, and time of the event will be prepared and made available at the Pool Desk and at the Media Information Desk.
Pools will be accompanied by three people: 1) a representative of the MFA’s press office, 2) a representative of the OSCE PPIS, and 3) security officer.

8. WORKING AREA

The press centre will have 1,000 workplaces for journalists with 400 desktop PC’s. Half of the desktops will be in Russian, and half – in English with a possibility to choose one of six OSCE languages (English, French, German, Spanish, Italian and Russian).
The Media Centre will be a Wi-Fi zone (Internet access).
Work places (without computers – 600 seats) will have plugs for Internet connection.
Unrestricted access for photographers and TV producers to upload video and audio through the Internet, including FTP servers, will be provided.
The area will be equipped with landline telephone sets (1 per 2 workplaces) with international access.
Six large capacity, high-speed, colour networked multifunctional devices (for printing, copying, faxing and scanning) will be installed in the media centre.
Networked printers will be installed for laptops at the working area. The working area will be equipped with 15 large TV screens for CCTV broadcasting. Wireless headphones will be offered to journalists who want to follow CCTV. Headphones will be placed near the TV screens.
Six large split-boxes (24 sockets each) will be placed in the press-centre.
All Summit sessions will be broadcast via closed circuit TV (CCTV).
CCTV system will be used for announcing additional information (important changes in schedule, time of holding separate briefings for press, delegations’ announcements, bilateral meetings open to the Media).
In addition the Media Information Desk staff shall inform journalists about changes in the schedule.

Note! Media representatives are responsible for security and safety of their own belongings/equipment.

Multimedia

The Summit will be streamed live over the internet and subsequently uploaded to the OSCE website and to the OSCE YouTube channel.
OSCE Press and Public Information Section will upload on the website official photo; other pictures may be available upon request to the OSCE PPIS.
OSCE PPIS will also create short videos and uploaded them to the OSCE website and the OSCE YouTube channel.
Through the OSCE Twitter, the PPIS will alert media to new information on the website.

7. HOST BROADCASTER

Host broadcaster – broadcasting company of the Republic of Kazakhstan “Khabar” JSC – will make available audio and video signals on the spot and via satellite.

Host broadcaster will provide a video and audio-feed to TV and radio booths in the Media Centre, from the following locations:
- Plenary room (throughout the whole duration of the Summit)
- Media briefing room in the Palace of Independence (during briefings).

Two stand-up positions for live TV interviews will be in the Media Centre linked up to the satellite.

Satellite broadcasting
All plenary proceedings of the Summit, selected media briefings by the Heads of State and Government, and the final press conference will be transmitted via satellite with the assistance of the EBU with no encryption and no downlink charges.

The following events will be transmitted live via satellite:
- Plenary proceedings (non-stop)
- Final press conference
- Selected media briefings at the Palace of Independence

Individual TV organisations can apply for live stand-up positions to be provided by the host broadcaster.
Live broadcast quality video and audio signal from host broadcaster will be delivered via cables to 20 TV booths in the media centre.
TV companies will be able to uplink their signal to the satellite for live broadcasting. Interested companies must apply in advance to use this facility, together with the media accreditation application form.
English speaking support staff will manage access to satellite facilities following requests. On the spot application for using this facility will be received at a clearly signposted table in the Media Centre.
TV companies own uplink trucks (live transmission trucks) will be given access to a car park at the Media Centre. All trucks must pre-register by 25 November, and provide all details (registration number, make and dimensions) of the vehicles to be brought to the Media Centre parking area. Drivers and technicians operating these trucks must have the OSCE Summit Press Accreditation badges. This information must be communicated to MFA together with the media accreditation form.
