Enhancing Intelligence-Led Policing to Combat Serious Security Threats and Crime (ILP project)

Overarching Objective: Bolstered effectiveness of law enforcement in BiH to combat serious crime and threats to security

Rationale
- Improved co-operation and exchange of criminal intelligence among the 16 LEAs in fighting organized crime
- Improved compliance with EU SOCTA & EUROPOL security threats assessments
- Proactive and high-profile ILP-driven investigations

High-impact Approach: Key Expected Results
- A coherent strategic and operational ILP model, policies and procedures
- Increased and improved ILP use in strategic, operational and tactical decisions
- Strengthened ILP structures in the LEAs
- Advanced capacities of ILP-friendly IT systems and programmes
- New and sustainable mechanisms for inter-agency co-ordination and co-operation
- An institutionalized approach to ILP training and specialization

Road to Success: Key Activities
- Increasing awareness on ILP benefits among law enforcement management
- Facilitating a guiding role of an ILP co-ordination body and partnership programmes
- Strengthening criminal intelligence sections (analytical and IT functions) and links with investigators/management
- Developing ILP manuals for organized crime, financial crime and corruption
- Utilizing a risk assessment framework and a criminal intelligence sharing plan
- Increasing database capacities for ILP
- Conducting specialized training for criminal intelligence staff and analysts

OSCE is a natural partner for ILP due to its longstanding presence in BiH as well as its cross-dimensional approach to security.
