✓ Financing of terrorism

The first measures aimed at fighting the financing of terrorism in Albania were adopted back in 2004 (Law no. 9258, dated 15.7.2004 on the “Measures to fight the Financing of Terrorism). To implement the provisions of this law, the CMDs no. 718 and 767, dated 14.11.2007 on the “List of financers of terrorism” was approved. The law determines the measures against financing of terrorism, competences and cooperation among relevant structures charged with the control and the implementation of these measures. The purpose of this law is to prevent and fight against terrorist subjects and those who facilitate and finance terrorism, confiscating and seizing their funds and assets.

Later on, the Parliament of Albania passed Law no. 9917, dated 19.5.2008, “For the Prevention of Money Laundering and the Financing of Terrorism”, which laid the ground for the approval of specific bylaws and regulations, especially CMD no. 1077, dated 27 October 2009 on “Approving the National Strategic Document”, on “Financial Crime Investigation” and the Ministry of Finance’s Guidance no. 15, dated 16.02.2009 on “Preventing Money Laundering and Fight against the Financing of Terrorism in the Customs System”.

In the fight against financing of terrorism in 2013 Albania has adopted and is implementing the Law No. 157/2013 “For the measures against financing of terrorism”.

The aim of this law is prevention and defeat of terrorist activity and they who support and finance terrorism, or to them, that are suspected that have committed or are committing or intend to commit such activities, through blocking, sequestration of the funds and their assets, in the implementation of the respective resolutions of the UN Council of Security, acts of other international organizations or international agreements, where Republic of Albania is a party.

This law is implemented to the persons declared wanted and to the persons to whom started such a procedure, who are suspected to be part of any form of terrorism and its financing, committed in or outside the territory of the Republic of Albania.

State Police in the implementation of the DCM “For the list of persons declared wanted as financers of terrorism”, respectively, with the information for the individuals included in these lists and made the notifications at the border for the monitoring of entries and exits in the Republic of Albania. In order to implement the above-mentioned legislation and to effectively prevent money laundering and the financing of terrorism the GoA has set up the General Directorate for the Prevention of Money Laundering (hereinafter GDPML) at the Ministry of Finance. GDPML was first set up in 2001, and since then has served as the Financial Intelligence Unit of Albania. In line with the existing legislation the GDPML has, inter alia, the following mandate:

- To prevent money laundering and fight the financing of terrorism by means of gathering, verifying, assessing and controlling information provided by financial services providers, non-financial services providers and others;
- To prevent money laundering and fight the financing of terrorism by means of suspending or freezing any transaction in order to prevent the transfer or disposal of assets originating from criminal activities;
- Coordinate its activity with other law enforcement and intelligence agencies, such as the Ministry of Interior, General Prosecutor, the Intelligence Service of Albania, as well as other international agencies.

The GoA has also set up a special Inter-Departmental Committee to Coordinate the Fight against Money Laundering and the Financing of Terrorism. The committee is chaired by the Prime Minister and consists of the Ministers of Interior, Treasury, Foreign Affairs, Defence, Justice as well as the General Prosecutor, the President of the National Bank and the Director of the Intelligence Service. The Committee convenes at least once a year and has approved its regulations. It provides strategic guidance to Albania's national policy in the areas of money laundering and financing of terrorism.

In compliance with the EU recommendations, the State Police is continuously strengthening the fight against money laundering and terrorism financing. Interagency cooperation has been consolidated. Currently there are 7 Joint Interagency Investigation Units (Tiranë, Durrës, Vlorë, Fier, Shkodër, Korçë and Gjirokastër), consisting in 30 police officers, and experts of financial crime investigation structures.

In line with law no. 9284, dated 30.09.2004 "On Prevention and fighting of organized crime" and law no. 10192, dated 03.12.2009 "On prevention and fighting of organized crime and trafficking through preventive measures against criminal assets”, the fight against organized crime is a strategic priority of the GoA and Albania’s State Police. This objective has been reflected in the seven years strategy of State Police. Taking into account the trends and features of organized crime the application of sequestration and seizure methods of assets derived by criminal activities was evaluated as necessary.

The investigation of the criminal assets falls under the responsibility of the Section of Investigation of Criminal Assets, which is a special structure within the State Police.

Regarding the measures related to confiscated assets, law no. 10192 dated 03.12.2009 “On prevention and combating of organized crime and trafficking through preventive measures against criminal assets”, clearly defines that incomes derived from seizure of criminal assets will serve to set up a special fund on prevention of criminality and legal education.

Specifically, this fund serves to:

- Improve Criminal Justice functions, by sending the assets into the administration of General Prosecutor and Ministry of Justice;
- Improve pre-investigations of organized crime and development of witnesses protection programs as well as the collaborators of justice by sending these assets into administration of the relevant ministry;
- Assist victims of organized crime, violence as well as stimulate social programs for these categories by sending these assets into administration of the relevant ministry.

Furthermore, CMD no. 1077, dated 27.10.2009, “On the Investigation of Financial Crime” has been approved. It aims to fight actively and continuously economic-financial crime, money laundering and terrorism financing; offences that seriously damage political and economic stability of the country, national security, and in general democracy and rule of law. This document aims at creating a long term platform as well as balancing effective prevention and investigation of crimes in economic and financial field, too.

CMD no. 44, dated 10.06.2009, on the approval of the regulation “On the prevention of money laundering and financing terrorism” aims at preventing the use of subjects listed in Law No. 9917, dated 19.05.2008, (for example, banks of second level) which are monitored and/or licensed by the National Bank of Albania on money laundering and/or financing terrorism.

✓ Border controls

Interpol System ASF2 is since 2010 integrated into TIMS and is not used only when needed, but accessed automatically in real time in any search or registration person, document or instrument the same easy access is also available in case of verifications nationals convert or category of deported citizens who are verified as suspects.

Despite that there is not a development of 2014, but previous, should be added that ASF2 Interpol system is already integrated into TIMS and it is not used only when needed but questioned in real-time in every search or registration on any person, document or instrument as in the 2012 report stated that Interpol is enable for verification if it is necessary.

Also, should be added that in all stations of BMP where occurs deportations is associated the AFIS system of fingerprints, as in the 2012 report I is not mentioned, though, even this have been previously realized and not in 2013.

The online applications for permits of stay for the foreigners' citizens and their verification and approval have begun.

To ensure European standards border control and to meet the challenges of security, it has been prepared a new draft law on border control, which will be in full compliance with EU legislation in general and specifically with the Code of Border Schengen amended. The draft opinion was sent to all ministries and institutions concerned and it is expected that within the first 6 months of 2016 is approved. On completion of the entire legal framework in this regard have also been established working groups to draft bylaws for border control. In preparing the draft of this law are taken into account on ongoing measures to prevent and fight terrorist activities.

The new draft of the new "border control" brings in the prevention of terrorism, it is a provision that provides for refusal of exit of persons for whom there is suspicion that they are involved in crimes related to terror. This element is taken from the German legislation and seeks to prevent the movement of foreign terrorist fighters.

In the context of updating and improving the legislation for foreigners, it is designed the Decree of the Minister of Interior "On the procedures of treatment of foreign nationals staying irregularly in the territory of the Republic of Albania", approved by No. 293, dated 04.06.2015. In this guidance it is anticipated that the process of selection of foreigners, participate and anti-terrorism structure. Thus increasing the identification ability of law enforcement agencies to detect persons who may be linked to terrorist activities, taking actions that in the early stages of dealing with illegal aliens.

Currently, the Border and Migration Police (BMP) have increased the level of awareness and preparedness in relation to terrorism at all levels of its structure. Interviews frontline and second line during border crossings have terrorist activity by targeting a key. PKM conducted a survey of this nature as well as the entry exit. For all suspected cases BMP announces anti-terror specialists to attend interviews and actions.

For the drafting of the new law on border control is working in constant cooperation with long-term expert Pameca 4 Integrated Border Management. Each element of the bill in question was faced with EU legislation in this field. At the design phase of each article it is in full compliance with the acquiscommunitaire. It is following the same line and work on the draft Decision of Council of Ministers and the draft Guidelines on implementation of the new draft law, while maintaining compliance with EU legislation.

Despite that the draft law provides for the preparation of bylaws to 6 months after the entry into force of the law, by-laws for its implementation are being prepared in parallel with the process of adoption. With the adoption and entry into force of the law will be developed and appropriate training on how to implement it.

Practical activity of PKM in the field for interviews and checks carried out on persons suspected of involvement in terrorist activities carried out on the basis of information gathered by the BMP, the exchange between the agencies involved and on the basis of risk analysis on this issue. BMP implement Standard Operating Procedures, rogatory letters and the attractions of central attention in matters of terror. Primarily, as a model of refusals at the exit of persons suspected foreign terrorist fighters, it has been the model applied by Germany.

BMP proposed in 2015 the new structure of its restructuring within the State Police. The proposed structure of the BMP is approved and is being implemented.

- In this structure is enhanced the structure of the investigation and risk analysis that BMP. Sections of crime investigation in RDBM sector were raised and depend directly by the Director of RDBM. Also, the Investigation Section at the Directorate General of CPM has passed under direct subordinates of the Director General, aiming to boost the quantity and quality of information and investigations, both in terms of border control, as well as the management of migration. Structure Previous investigating BMP included within the Directorate of Operational Services, which was the main focus of border control.
- In all RDBM was appointed a specialist dedicated to risk analysis. Previous structure at regional level, the risk analysis included within structures investigation, where a specialist investigation, in addition to preparing the investigative work of risk analysis. Already dedicated specialist will collect and process information and data in a broader plan, preparing full analytical materials and more targeted.

Use of non-intrusive technology (non-intrusive) persons applied systematically in Tirana's international airport, where every citizen spends on the respective detectors and their baggage is also screened. At other points Crossing applied radiation detectors, mainly for tools, as well as the generation detectors (Pager) for identification of radioactive materials to persons, baggage and vehicles. All these checks are performed without stopping the movement of people and vehicles, without causing delays at the border crossing. BMP is permanently in cooperation with partners and donors for providing such kind of equipment and the extent of their use throughout the Republic of Albania BCP and along the border line.

For vehicles and baggage to the point explanation is given above.

BMP is in constant cooperation with commercial entities as regards checks of persons and vehicles that may be involved in various criminal activities, including terrorism.

- Regarding the airlines international airport, currently a daily cooperation. Carrier sends Rinas Airport in advance of their passenger lists, which are accessed by the BMP before the arrival of the aircraft. These lists vetted selection regarding persons who may pose a risk. In 2015 it signed a Memorandum of Understanding and Cooperation between the State Police and KPS Tirana International Airport Operations at Tirana International Airport "Mother Teresa";

- Passenger lists carriers in maritime BCP, also accessed in advance by the BMP;

Trainings were conducted in accordance with the Thematic Plan 2015 in cooperation with EXBS, PAMECA IV Mission, OSCE, Hanss Seidel Foundation, missions of UNHCR, UNODC, IOM, German and French experts etc.

- f. During this period, working in cooperation with international partners to increase the number of equipment, maintenance and extension of coverage to the border with technological equipment. In this context, perform maintenance and repair of equipment for second-line control, like endoscopes, buster, etc. It increased the number of devices that are used in green border control, as Smartdec, GPS, binoculars day and night, etc. These devices are mainly provided by cooperation with EXBS and the state budget. In the framework of the added equipment and coverage of borderline with technological equipment, they were identified by the CPM some of the needs of projects that will be developed during 2016.

Border control at entry and exit of RA, all persons crossing the border are subject to various checks and interviews. In case of doubt on the first line controls persons may be subject to detailed checks. Frontline controls consist in verifying the identity of the person, the authenticity of the document, the consultation system for different notes about people and things.

Besides interviews routine, from where the result that the person may be involved in terrorist activities in the TIMS system currently has integrated a list of concrete persons, suspected to be involved in these activities, which are subject to controls and actions other BMP and other structures of the State Police. Exchange of information with the structures responsible for counterterrorism is permanent and updated information in this regard.

Green border patrols supervised by BMP with appropriate equipment for effective supervision and policing based on risk analysis and information.

In case of issuance of visas and in the case of issuance of residence permits continued cooperation between the MFA, BMP and SIS, as provided by law. In 2015 continued to function normally electronic register of foreigners, which is reflected in the electronic device foreign nationals with residence permits, addresses, contacts and other data. The exchange of information is carried out based center in real time.

One of the most important in evaluating the issuance of a visa or residence permit to a foreigner is its involvement in activities related to terror. In cases of foreigners who seek asylum in the Republic, or who are subject to the return and readmission by the BMP are interviewed and the selection of a foreigner. As explained above, during interviews attend anti-terror structures of the State Police and SIS.

To conduct maritime security, RA has under its subordination IOMC, including 7 Ministers with specific duties in border security. Maritime Operational Centre, in cooperation with the Regional Border and Migration Durres and Vlora and the Mobile Operations Unit (Delta Force) during the year were conducted 172 checks for control of maritime space, 54 rescue operations and giving support in the sea, 56 operations for the prevention and defeat of the illegal activities in the sea. Regarding air security, despite BCP controlling the activities, there have been included also TIA (together the ICTS), Civil Aviation, ANTA and other responsible agencies. Cooperation is ongoing. The Agreement of Understanding and Cooperation is signed in 2015, as abovementioned.

✓ Travel document security

As of 1 March 2012 biometric passports are the only travel document of Albanian citizens. All BCPs use biometric passport readers and equipment for fingerprint verification. The use of biometric electronic documents has facilitated registration at BCPs because most of the data is processed in a shorter time. Reading of electronic documents via scanners that are used by Border and Migration Police is simpler. It is also possible the automatic reading of the image of the holder of the document. Real-time registration into TIMS system of documents and their reading during entry/exit at border crossing points, gives the possibility of comparison with the existing data reducing the possibility of abuse.

Additionally, border notifications with different features reflected into TIMS in real-time increases the quality of border control. At the same time TIMS system generates in real-time also the alerts on persons sought nationally or internationally. Alerts are generated also for suspected persons on different criminal events.

Implementing the Ordinance of Police General Director no. 503 dated 02. 06. 2008, Interpol Tirana records continuously the lost/stolen documents into Interpol Databases System. During 2011 into IPSP ASF2 System have been registered 3154 passports.

The IT directorate web page has PRADO's link, enabling every employee in consultation with the specimen of documents of various countries in BCP. In terms of security documents of the country, in addition to direct TIMS data, and the data integrated to the National Civil Registry that help to consult in case of need of verifying the identity of an Albanian citizen with a biometric document.

✓ Container and supply chain security

The port of Durres receives approximately 80% of the 1,500 sea containers entering Albania each month, the bulk from the People's Republic of China and South America via feeder routes from Greece, Cyprus and Italy. The remaining 20% of the container traffic arrives overland via two border points with Greece - Kakavija and Kapshtica from different points of origin including Turkey.

The Customs Service of the Republic of Albania operates in compliance with the provisions of the Customs' Code. Control procedures at the crossing points are carried out in keeping with the stipulations of Section 2 of the Code (articles 11 and 12) "On Control, Supervision and Competences of Customs Service".

With reference to the equipment used to screen containers, Custom Service currently has one Nuctech mobile scanner in the port of Durres. Other four scanners have been installed since 2010; each of them is used at the border crossings of Kakavija and Kapshtica, as well as at the smaller port of Vlora.

Customs uses “ASYCUDA World” for their basic risk analysis system which is based upon the nature of goods, country of origin, the history of the importing company and any other intelligence. Meanwhile, the Border Police have their own, separate risk analysis system, but it is envisaged that in due course the systems in use will be common, thus enabling better targeting of illegal activities to include all aspects of trans-national crime.

Border and Migration Police closely cooperate with the Custom Service based on the provision of the relevant Memorandum of Understanding. Although Border and Migration Police deals primarily with the control passengers and vehicles, it closely cooperates with the Customs in cases of detections of illegal activities, which are processed jointly.

The effectiveness of the Cooperation has increased as a result of the implementation of Albania’s Integrated Border Management plan. Customs have undertaken joint training at the police academy and are currently drafting a joint training plan with the police. They have several joint teams who share equipment, vehicles and accommodation.

✓ Security of radioactive sources

Protection from radiation in the Republic of Albania and the safety and security of sources of ionizing radiation is provided for by Law no. 8025, dated 9.11.1995 “On protection from ionizing radiation”, amended in July 2008. Albania’s legislation is in compliance with EU directive 96/29 and BSS No.11. The law also ensures the effective independence of the regulatory Body, reinforced through the 2008 amendments. The Radiation Protection Commission (RPC) members are nominated by the Council of Ministers without conflict of interest with users.

The above mentioned law includes provisions on security and safety of radiation sources, on duties and functions of the Regulatory body, regulatory responsibilities, the way of completion of legislation in the field of radiation protection and duties of the Office for Radiation Protection (ORP). This law also provides for the licensing of all activities and practices related to ionizing radiation as defined in relevant regulations. The Law also opens the way to full inspection process and sanctions. Basically, our legislation is founded on four basic pillars, namely legislation, licensing, inspection and sanctions.

The 2008 amendments took into consideration other elements such as security of source, increasing the independence of the regulatory body, increasing the level of adoption of relevant regulations through relevant CMD, national inventory of ionizing radiation near the ORP. Since 2004 RPC is working toward implementation of "Code of Conduct on Safety and Security of Radioactive Sources" IAEA. It has adopted and approved a set of regulations in the radiation protection field, safety and security.

The Council of Minister of Albania has further approved:

- The Regulation “On the physical security of the radioactive materials in the Republic of Albania”, Decision No 344, date 29 April 2011;
- The Regulation on "Categorization of radioactive sources in the Republic of Albania", Decision No. 09, date 07 January 2010 of Council of Ministers;
- The Regulation "On the treatment of radioactive waste", Decision No. 08, date 07 January 2010 of Council of Ministers.

The RPC has approved and implements the Guidance on import-export and transit of radioactive sources of category 1 and 2 in the Republic of Albania (no. 134, date 12.4.2011). RPC adopted a declaration in support of "Code of Conduct on Safety and Security of Radioactive Sources" IAEA Nr. 1388 14/04/2004 and a letter was sent and the Director General of ANEA stressing the fact that Albania is working towards the implementation of this Code.

Implementation of relevant international standards, for example, compliance with IAEA Regulations

The above documents are in compliance with IAEA documents related to security of radioactive sources. They also take into account elements of security during the transport.

Changes in institutional arrangements

Strategy development

The RPC is currently working to draft the National Policy and Strategy for the treatment of radioactive waste in Albania.

Measures to prevent the illegal storage, circulation or use of CBRN weapons and related materials

The RPC is a part of the system mainly related with prevention of trafficking and search of any orphan source.

Measures to regulate laboratories and other premises involved in the production, storage or use of the above

Albania already has a consolidated system on procedures for licensing inspection and enforcement. There is no production of radioactive sources in Albania

Awareness raising with relevant trade bodies (laboratories, regulatory bodies etc.)

The Center of Applied Nuclear Physics works as a supporting team in the case of orphan sources.

International co-operation/technical assistance activities (for example, participation in NATO CBRN training)

RPC has been working with the US Government on that issue.

✓ Use of the Internet and other information networks for terrorist purposes

The 2008 amendments of the Criminal Code of Republic of Albania (law No. 10023, dated 27.11.2008) added 12 new provisions defining cybercrimes in the field of information technology or criminal offences committed through computer systems. These changes are based on the Budapest Convention on “Cyber Crimes” (ratified by parliament in 2000) and the Protocol of the Convention on Cyber Crimes, with regard to penalizing the racist or xenophobic acts via internet. The provisions of the Criminal Code define procedures of sequestration and fastened safety of computer data, based on the Budapest Convention on “Cyber Crimes”.

All e-communication systems operated and used by police structures are monitored and secured based on the special Memorandum of Understanding between the Embassy of United States in Albania, ICITAP Programme in Albania, Ministry of Interior of Republic of Albania and Albanian State Police signed in Tirana on 20 November 2006.

All activities and incidents comprising breaches of the Code fall within the jurisdiction of the State Police, which operates through the pertinent central institutional mechanisms: the section against Cyber Crimes. This section was established within the Department for Crimes Investigation of the General Police Directorate of Albania in June 2009. This newly-created structure examines cyber evidences, investigates cyber-crimes and other crimes related to the use of computer and computer networks for terrorist purposes as well for money laundering in order to finance terrorism on the internet. Its staff has steadily increased to meet the growing need of the section. Today it employs 22 police (it was founded with only 6 police officers).

The Albanian Parliament has adopted the Law No. 9699, dated 26.03.2007, “On the ratification of Cooperation Strategic Agreement between the Republic of Albania and the European Police Service (EUROPOL)” which was signed on 05.02.2007. On 1 December 2009 the following documents have been signed in Hague;

- The Memorandum of Understanding on the establishment of secure communication networks between Europol and the Republic of Albania;
- The Action Plan on the Implementation of the Cooperation Strategic Agreement between the Republic of Albania and EUROPOL;
- Technical Document, Bilateral Agreement between Europol and the Republic of Albania on the installation of Computer Networks.

Regarding Europol by DCM No. 566, dated 27.06.2013, it was adopted, in principle, the agreement between the Republic of Albania and the European Police Office for Strategic and Operational Cooperation. Albania signed the Strategic and Operating Agreement with Europol on the 9th of December 2013 and ratified it on 20 March 2014 in the Parliament of the Republic of Albania by Law no. 28.2014. This is the highest form of cooperation with the agency regarding the safe exchange of data.

The Memorandum of Understanding between the Republic of Albania and Europol was signed and published in the Official Gazette, no. 705, date 12.10.2016.

Regarding Interpol in relation to extradition matters, we inform you that Albania currently has bilateral extradition agreements with Italy, USA and Kosovo. Based on these agreements, may be arrested in Albania, citizens wanted by these respective countries, with the aim to be extradited to these countries.

✓ Legal co-operation including extradition

According to the Constitution, the extradition of an Albanian citizen without a bilateral treaty in place, expressly providing for the extradition of Albanian citizens, is prohibited. Yet, the Albanian legislation does not require a bilateral treaty for the consent to extradition when the person in question is not an Albanian citizen.

Article 11 "Extradition" of the Criminal Code of Republic of Albania stipulates that "Extradition may be permitted only if it is expressly provided for in international agreements to which the Republic of Albania is a party". Pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code, extradition is permitted only on basis of a request addressed to the Ministry of Justice (MoJ). The request may be addressed directly or via diplomatic channels. If the MoJ accepts the extradition request it conveys the procedure to the appropriate authorities.

The Criminal Procedure Code of Albania devotes special articles (488-503) to the legal relations with foreign states on criminal matters and to the detailed procedures that govern extradition.

The conditions of extradition are specified in article 490, i.e.:

- Extradition is permitted under the express condition that the person subject to extradition shall not be prosecuted, sentenced nor shall he be surrendered to another country for a criminal offence which has occurred prior to the request for the handover, other than the one for which the extradition is provided for;
- The requirements of the paragraph 1 shall not be considered if: a) the extraditing party gives express consent that the extradited person is prosecuted even for another criminal offence and the extradited person agrees thereupon; b) the extradited person, although having had the opportunity, has not left the territory of the country he is extradited after forty five days from his release or after has left is returned voluntarily.
- The Minister of Justice may impose even other requirements it deems appropriate.

Furthermore, Albania is party to several legal agreements regarding the cooperation in the criminal field and part of some Conventions and International Treaties:

- European Convention on Extraditions, entered into force on 17/08/1998.
- European Convention for Mutual Legal Support, ratified on 04/04/2000.
- European Convention on the Transfer of Criminal Proceedings, ratified on 04/04/2000.
- European Convention on International Validity of Criminal Decisions,
- Convention for the Transfer of Convicted Persons, ratified on 04/04/2000.

- Convention on Cyber-crimes, ratified on 20/06/2002.
- Additional Protocol of the Convention on Cyber-crimes, with regard to penalizing the racist or xenophobic acts via Internet, ratified on 26/11/2004.
- Convention of the CoE of the Prevention of Terrorism, ratified on 06/02/2007.
- Convention of the Council of Europe on Laundering, Detection, Seizure and Confiscation of Crime Proceeds and Financing of Terrorism etc.

The communication between Albania and other countries in the area of mutual legal assistance in criminal matters is governed by appropriate international agreements to which Albania is a state party and by the relevant stipulations of Albania's Criminal Procedure Code (Articles 488-503). Albania is party, inter alia, to the European Conventions:

- "On Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters" and its additional protocols, signed on 9.05.1998, ratified on 04.04.2000 and entered into force on 03.07.2000;
- On transfer of proceedings in criminal matters" signed on 19.05.1998, ratified on 04.04.2000 and entered into force on 05.07.2000.

Following the entry into force of the Conventions, the Republic of Albania provides proper mutual legal assistance in criminal matters, in conformity with its provisions.

Most recently the Albanian parliament passed Law no. 10193, dated 03.12.2009 "On Jurisdictional Relations with Foreign Authorities in Criminal Matters". The approval of this law marks a significant step forward in the improvement of Albania's legal framework in the area of legal assistance in criminal matters.

The provisions of the new Law comply with EU standards create a new system centered on the authority the Ministry of Justice. However, cases in which local and foreign authorities can send their requests directly to Courts or public prosecutor's offices have also been envisaged.

There are two other positive aspects of the law that are worth mentioning:

- The new system is highly effective due to the presence of precise deadlines for each procedure;
- Clearly defines competences for international arrest warrants for Albanian citizens. In fact, the new Law has attributed to public prosecutor's offices specific competences in issuing the aforesaid warrants both during investigative phases and at the end of trials.

✓ Safe havens and shelter to terrorists and terrorist organizations

The Republic of Albania has taken several measures to prevent the use of its territory as safe haven and shelter to terrorists and terrorist organizations. Among others, the Counter Terrorism Directory of the General Police Directorate in close cooperation with Border and Migration Police controls and monitors suspect individuals that enter and reside in the territory of the Republic of Albania. These tasks are also performed by other state agencies involved in the fight against terrorism, in particular by the Intelligence Service. The latter has no executive powers, but in the framework of the cooperation with other law enforcement institutions, it collects (including the data of informative services of foreign partner countries), assesses and analyses information on the use of Albanian territory for purposes of terrorist activities against other countries and as appropriate, it cooperates with State Police and/or Prosecutor's Office for the prevention of this activity.

BMP is in close collaboration with the sector and sections of counter terrorism to prevent and fight them at the border and in the territory. Exchange of information is continues in this regard. Also, as in the case of the issuance of visas and in cases of issuing residence permits, the cooperation between the MFA, BMP and SIS, continues as provided by law.

In 2013 a new Law has been approved no. 118/2013 "On foreigners" in comply with the directive and recommendations of EU.

The bylaws for the implementation of this law are also in accordance with EU legislation. Even refusing entry form in RA has been approved in accordance with the standard form the Schengen area.

✓ Prevention of violent extremism and radicalization that lead to terrorism

The security threat stemming from violent extremism and radicalization that lead to terrorism has been acknowledged and duly addressed in the "National strategy on the fight against terrorism". In this regard, the prevention of the phenomena that might bring about violent extremism and radicalization is one of the key elements of the Strategy, which aims to "reduce the threat of terrorism to our country and its interests, by improving security and increasing community's confidence in the national measures tailored to prevent terrorist acts".

Responsible institutions are tasked to put in place legal and administrative measures in order to analyze, assess and follow up any signal that might bring about terrorist acts. One of the main objectives of this Strategy is to "Develop and enhance the transparency for community with regard to negative phenomena that might lead to radicalism or extremism" This target will be achieved by strengthening cooperation between all police structures and civil society in order to exchange information in relation to all forms of radicalism and extremism. It also is important that cooperation between the anti-terrorism structures and community police officers who organize meetings with community in order to raise awareness and prevent all forms of radicalism and extremism. These measures have been foreseen in the Action Plan Strategy.

The prevention of terrorist and extremist acts in the Strategy is specified in one of its objectives as follows; "The control of grievances that may lead to radicalism and extremism". The injustices and complaints as a result of lack of tolerance between community groups can have a strong impact on the level in which the individuals will accept radicalism and extremism. It is important also the commitment with the isolated communities in order to efficiently control their differences to reduce pressure and to increase dialogue.

The early identification of conflicts is one of the most important steps to prevent terrorist acts. It is important to support individuals who are judged to be exposed to extremism and radicalism. The main purpose is to identify these individuals at an early stage (in advance) (before they commit a terrorist act), by giving them legal aid and by dissociating them from extremist activity. These measures will be associated by necessary legal and administrative acts that guarantee the permanent phases of cooperation with these individuals.

These preventive measures will be implemented by the Ministry of Education and Science, by the Regional Educational Directorates, High Schools as well as in cooperation with State Police in the framework of the fulfillment of the annual training plan during 2011 has conducted the following trainings related to the fight against terrorism with the officers of the anti-terror structures;

✓ Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs) in countering terrorism

The public institutions involved in the fight against terrorism are: the Ministry of Interior, the Department for Crime Investigation and the Directorate against Serious Crimes/Sector against Terrorist Acts. All these structures have an important impact on the prevention of financing terrorism and terrorist acts. These structures conduct procedural and investigative activities as well as cooperate with other security institutions especially with the Anti-terror Directorate, in the Albanian Intelligence Service. These structures cooperate with the General Prosecutors Office, which is the institution involved in the fight against terrorism. At the same time in the General Prosecutors Office works the Interception and Telecommunication Office.

State Police Directorate in the fight against terrorism and financing of terrorism closely cooperates with the Ministry of Finances with FIU which is a specialized financial unit for the prevention and fight against money laundering and financing of terrorism. This directorate works as a national centre in charge of gathering, analyzing and delivering to the law enforcement agencies of data on the possible activities of money laundering and financing of terrorism.

- In order to prevent the financing of terrorism and terrorist ASP, DCM "On the list of persons designated as terrorist financing," concerned with getting information to individuals involved in these lists made announcements in border monitoring the entry - exit in the Republic of Albania. In pursuance of these CMD they are:

Cross border cooperation

After the adoption of the new IBM Strategy, based on the EU Recommendations for Western Balkans countries on IBM, also pursuant to the Convention for Police Cooperation between SEE Countries signed in Vienna on 5 May 2006, Albania is focused in concrete fields of the cross-border cooperation with foreign countries.

The Council of Ministers of the Republic of Albania and the Government of Montenegro has signed the Protocol “On the conduction of joint activities of Border Control in JBCP Murriqan - Sukobine. The signing of this protocol has guaranteed the functioning of the JBCP according to standards based on the principle “one stop, one check” not only between the agencies of one party but between the agencies of both countries in the JBCP, by facilitating the border control procedures in this JBCP and by reducing the time for the control of individuals and vehicles.

This is done by synchronizing forces and dividing service sectors. At the end of each operation a joint analysis of the results is conducted.

National Contact Points between Border Police have been established and are operational in Albania.

In the Republic of Albania, military academic education is centralized within the Training & Doctrine Command (TRADOC). This institution provides appropriate education, including mandatory lectures of International Humanitarian Law to all commanders and members of their staffs. There is a significant amount of these lectures both in Bachelor’s curriculum and Master’s curriculum.

The International Humanitarian Law is applied through National Law, no. 8003, dated 30.10.1995 “Military Penal Code” - Chapter VIII “Felony in Military Operations”

4.3 How does your State ensure that Armed Forces are not used to limit the peaceful and lawful exercise of human and civil rights by persons as individuals or as representatives of groups nor to deprive them of national, religious, cultural, linguistic or ethnic identity?

Missions and tasks of the Albania Armed Forces are driven based on main documents according to the tasks in and outside of Albania.

The activities of armed forces are under control of constitutional authorities or authorities to whom such control is entrusted to, by a special article of the National Constitution, thus in case of transgression of competences it is upon civilian authorities to act accordingly.

The constitution of Republic of Albania is the main document ensuring that Armed Forces are not used to limit the peaceful and lawful exercise of human and civil rights by persons as individuals or representatives of groups to deprive them of national, religious, cultural, linguistic or ethnic identity. In this document are stated all procedures for usage of AAF and punishment for those who violate them.

Law Nr. 173/2014 for the discipline in the Albanian Armed Forces, Chapter 2, "Violations and Disciplinary Measures" defines scales of the those measure. (Article.13)

Likewise, the free media contribute as an additional element to prevent armed forces actions which might serve to limit the exercise of human and political rights. Human Rights are also part of training programs and curricula's in different courses. In case of this action is on support of the police forces, armed forces units are used for guarding and protection duties of critical infrastructure and constitutional order.

4.4 What has been done to provide for the individual service member's exercise of his or her civil rights and how does your State ensure that the country's Armed Forces are politically neutral?

Human rights of soldiers are embodied in Human Rights Charter no. 2/1993 Coll., (which is applicable for every person under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Albania and is part of its constitutional law). (Referred in point 3.3 subtitles "The ombudsman role")

4.5 How does your State ensure that its defense policy and doctrine are consistent with international law?

Albanian Defence Policy and Doctrine are consistent with international law related to the use of armed forces, including in armed conflict and the relevant commitments of the Code of Conduct on Politico-Military Aspects of Security. According to the Albanian Constitution any international obligation must be embodied into Albanian legislation. The Albanian Armed Forces respect the Additional Protocol to the Geneva Conventions of August 1949, and relating to the Protection of Victims of International Armed Conflicts (Protocol I) of June 1977 and the obligations under Article 82. Provisions of the international law which are included in the doctrines and different field manuals derive from these doctrines.

4.6 What has been done to integrate women into conflict prevention, crisis management and post conflict rehabilitation through its activities?

I: Prevention

1. Measures to increase armed forces personnel understanding of the special needs and contributions of women in conflict.

Gender issues, protection of women's rights and gender discrimination, are included in the education programs for the military personnel in Armed Forces.

Albanian Military Troops participating in international peacekeeping missions, conduct specific pre deployment training including issues related to the protection of the rights of girls and women in the conflict areas, and well acquainted with the country costumes, traditions, and culture where they serve. Albania, as a troop sending country, is part of these peacekeeping missions conducted mostly abroad.

A part of prevention measures are systematic analysis for gender in conflict areas which includes gender-desegregation, and socio-economic indicators.

Information collected in areas where Albanian troops are deployed, is analyzed and processed through international HQ. This information also includes gender issues. During 2016, up to 29 (twenty nine) military and civilian personnel of Albanian Armed Forces have participated in courses for gender issues with the main aim: to increase awareness and provide a conceptual understanding of gender issues in the security sector; to increase the need of communication with women within the society, to involve women in the planning and conducting operations' phases, and to provide successful missions, and operations.

2. Measures to address the violation of the rights of women and girls, in line with international standards.

The Republic of Albania has enshrined in their legal framework, from the constitution to specific laws and provisions, the principle of non-discrimination between men and women.

The Constitution of the Republic of Albania protects fundamental individual rights and freedom that affirms the principle of equality against the discrimination for reasons such as gender, race, religion, ethnicity, language, political, religious or philosophical beliefs, economic condition, education, social status, or ancestry.(Constitution, Article 18, para. 1 and 2).

The “Law on Gender Equality in Society”, no. 9970, dated 24.07.2008, is another important document based on the principle of equality and non-discrimination and other principles enshrined in the Constitution, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, as well as all other international acts ratified by the Albanian Parliament (Article 3, paragraph 1).

The National Strategy and Action Plan on Gender Equality 2016-2020, with the aim to serve as guidance for the efforts of not only the Government of Albania, but also of the entire society regarding gender equality and reduction of gender-based violence and domestic violence.

The vision of the National Strategy and Action Plan on Gender Equality 2016-2020 aims a society which holds gender equality as a prerequisite for sustainable development, and zero tolerance towards gender-based violence, and domestic violence.

The Program of the Government for 2013-2017 has expressed the commitments for all public institutions in the fight against women violence, reinforcement of justice system for prevention and support of victims of violence.

The right of women to have equality of opportunity with men, including their professional career and public life, has its foundations in the Universal Declaration of Human Right, and it's enshrined in the Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination against Women. Women's representation in the Armed Forces has also been increased in both civilian and military positions; policies and regulations have been developed with the view of facilitating the promotion of women in ranks and military career.

The National Strategy for Development and Integration 2015-2020, which aims the elimination of gender based discrimination, the protections women's rights, and the involvement of women in all institutions including legislative, executive, judicial and other public institutions.

In terms of the Albanian Armed Forces, the main policy is to increase women's participation in peacekeeping operations; prevention, and solving conflicts. Application of positive discrimination in this area seeks to increase the number of women and girls in the peacekeeping operations. These measures are accompanied with training of staff of peacekeeping missions on gender equality and awareness rising for reduction of gender stereotyping in the peacekeeping missions/operations.

One of main aim of the Defense Directive for 2016 is to increase the participation of women in the Albanian Armed Forces recruitment and promotion processes, as well as to include the gender perspectives in the plans and policies of MOD/GS.

The law "On Military Discipline in the Armed Forces of the Republic of Albania" No. 173/2014, date 18.12.2014, which classifies sexual harassment committed by military personnel during and after working hours in the category of serious disciplinary violation. The purpose of this law is to prohibit sexual harassment in order to defend human dignity, freedom and privacy and in order to promote equality between the sexes.

Regarding the Armed Forces, there are no serious gaps that will require immediate action in respect of the legal rights of women who serve in the Armed Forces.

II: Participation.

1. Measures to increase the number of women in general and in decision-making positions in the armed forces and the Ministry of Defense.

According to the "Human Resources Management Strategy in the Armed Forces 2015-2019" the number of female military personnel in the Albanian Armed Forces should be up to 15%.

The female percentage has been increased compared to previous years, due to the intensive recruitment campaign undertaken by the Minister of Defense. The AAF has introduced several measures in support of recruitment process and enhancement of women participation in AAF in order to attract educated females from Albanian high schools and Universities. Current activities targeting potential female applicants range from local initiatives like spread of leaflets in universities and organizing open days seminars in MOD, and visits on local colleges of women in senior leadership position like Minister of Defense and other senior military position. They share their experience and provide the young female with important career information about AAF and highlight the significant contribution made by woman in AAF and abroad and increase awareness of open career opportunities for women and men in AAF.

Also, in order to attract greater number of qualified applicants from Albanian workforce, the Personnel Recruitment Centre has undertaken the initiative for promotion of women and man participation in military throughout National Employment Office. The recruitment campaigns also were spread on national/local media and official website of Albanian Armed Forces.

The total number of recruits who applied to be part of the Albanian Armed Forces was 887. Among the qualified personnel there were 52 girls (5.86%) who are now military personnel serving in the Albanian Army.

For the first time in Albanian Armed Forces, a Colonel (female) was promoted to Brigade General, who's currently serving as Training and Doctrine Commander. Also, during 2016 three LTC (females) were promoted to Colonel.

Below is shown the number of the female personnel, Officers and NCO-s who have advanced in their promotion during 2016, (125 in total): 58 officers and 67 NCOs.

There have been significant achievements in recent years to create opportunities for the promotion of women's equality in the security sector in the Albanian Armed Forces. The recruitment and education processes have been adapted to facilitate the inclusion of women; women's opportunities are often limited by aspects of the working environment and persistent negative stereotypes, which amount to underlying structural discrimination.

Enhancement of women personnel presentation in decision-making positions for 2016, in position of Head of Directorates in Ministry of Defense and General Staff are respectively 7 civilian female personnel and 3 military female personnel. Albanian Armed Forces had one female in position as "Defense Attaché" in our diplomatic mission as well as 13 other female representatives (7 military personnel and 6 civilian personnel) in our military representative's office. The Albanian Armed Forces are working to obtain expertise in the field of gender equality and to strengthen our capacity in implementing the UNSCR 1325.

2. Measures to increase the number of women in peacekeeping forces.

There are no restrictions in Albanian Army Forces limiting the deployment of women in mission abroad. Albanian Armed Forces has sent military female representatives as part of several missions under Resolute Support Mission (RSM) in Afghanistan, of ALTHEAs, in Bosnia and Herzegovina, KFOR, in Kosovo. In 2016, the total number of military females in peacekeeping forces is 11 in different ranks.

Albanian Armed Forces has participated in different trainings and exercises abroad in cooperation with Croatia, USA, Montenegro, Czech Republic, Germany, Poland, Latvia, Slovenia, and United Kingdom. The total number of females who have participated in these trainings is 30 persons (8 officers, 7 NCOs, and 15 soldiers). Also, during 2016, Albanian Armed Forces have conducted in many trainings and exercises in country. The total number of females who have participated in these trainings is 397 (35 officers, 202 NCOs, and 160 soldiers).

III: Protection

1. Increased access to justice for women whose rights are violated.

During 2016, there have been no reported cases on sexual harassment committed by military personnel. This issue is monitored closely in order to avoid the gender abuses during the military service.

For the reporting period, there was no case involving Albanian peacekeepers.

IV: Other information.

The Albanian Armed Forces are working to obtain expertise in the field of gender equality and to strengthen our capacity in implementing the UNSCR 1325.

Sharing of experiences within the region and above to identify new strategies and innovative solutions has been shown to be extremely useful. In this framework, the AAF was part of many training, courses, seminars as follow:
