OSCE Human Dimension Implementation Meeting Warsaw, 16 - 27 September 2019

EU statement – Working Session 3: Democratic institutions, including democracy at national, regional and local levels; democratic elections

Mr. Moderator,

I am honoured to present this statement on behalf of the European Union and its Member States.

The EU is fully committed to fostering the values and principles of democracy, rule of law and respect for human rights, including civil and political rights, and that of persons belonging to minorities, worldwide. Strong democratic institutions at the national, regional and local levels help ensure transparency and accountability, long-term growth and stability, and active involvement of citizens in the decision-making processes.

Mr. Moderator,

Our recommendations in relation to this session are the following:

- Participating States shall take all appropriate measures to increase participation of persons belonging to under-represented groups in decision making and political life, in particular, a stronger emphasis should be placed on the involvement of women, youth, and persons belonging inter alia to national, ethnic, and religious minorities as well as persons with disabilities;
- We invite participating States to further enhance transparency, accountability and inclusiveness of elections, encourage political pluralism and to make sure that the voters are given a genuine democratic choice;
- Participating States shall ensure adequate conditions for the development of effective local democracy;

EUROPEAN UNION

- Participating States shall further engage in promoting genuine dialogue with civil society, including in international fora, and refrain from imposing unnecessary limitations on activities of the civil society organizations. They shall also enhance efforts to protect human rights defenders from any persecution or infringements on their human rights;
- We encourage the Participating States to actively support freedom of the media, which constitute a prerequisite for credible, inclusive and transparent democratic processes;
- We advocate for a closer cooperation with ODIHR Election Observation Missions (EOMs), i.e. through extending early and unrestricted invitations, which enable ODIHR to conduct a Needs Assessment Mission in a timely manner, as well as through engaging on follow-up activities, especially by implementing ODIHR recommendations and submitting voluntary reports to the OSCE Human Dimension Committee;
- We call on participating States to make sure that ODIHR has sufficient resources to conduct its activities, as well as to continue seconding observers or contributing to the ODIHR's Observation Sustainability Fund;
- We also encourage the participating States to further develop cooperation with the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly in the overall OSCE's work in the field of election observation.

Mr. Moderator,

In virtue of the EU's second Action Plan on Human Rights and Democracy, we remain firm in our support to ODIHR activities, in particular, building and consolidating democratic institutions, advancing democratic reform, reinforcing open civil societies and promoting credible and transparent elections.

We reiterate our full support to ODIHR's mandate and autonomy, as well as its widely and internationally recognized election observation methodology - endorsed in the MC Decision 19/06 and based on the principles of independence, impartiality and professionalism - which has been used by other organizations, including the EU, as a basis for developing their own election observation guidelines.

EUROPEAN UNION

The EU has for several years undertaken a wide range of actions to advance and promote ODIHR's recommendations, be it in the frame of follow-up meetings with the relevant authorities and other stakeholders, legal assessments, publications, i.e. the election standards handbooks, or through the annual Election Seminar.

While we are benefitting from all ODIHR's assistance work, we also have to remember that the primary responsibility to implement electoral recommendations lies with us, the Participating States, as we obliged ourselves to, i.e. back in 1999 in Istanbul. We are committed to upholding those obligations.

Thank you.
