

Build professional skills in a fast-
paced environment
with peers

Questions?
Contact Us!

youth@odihr.pl
<https://www.osce.org/odihr>
@osce_odihr

2022 ODIHR Young Policy Advisers Course

For OSCE Mediterranean
Partners for Co-operation

21 - 25 March 2022

What is the PolAd?

The Young Policy Advisers Course (PolAd) was developed in collaboration with the Folke Bernadotte Academy, and is designed to strengthen participants' knowledge of democratic institutions, and OSCE commitments in democratic governance, as well as facilitate a deeper understanding of the role of policy advisers and the skills needed to undertake key tasks and policy-making functions.

The PolAd aims to strengthen democratic institutions by building the capacity of young policy professionals

Details

---

Eligibility Criteria

Public/civil professionals (up to age 35) currently working as policy or political advisers in the administration, line ministries, parliament or other state/public institutions in the six OSCE Mediterranean Partners for Co-operation: Algeria, Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Morocco and Tunisia are invited to apply.

---

Course Structure & Costs

The course will be conducted either online or in person in Istanbul, Turkey over the course of five days using a combination of interactive instructional methods and digital tools. Tuition, and course materials will be covered by ODIHR, additionally full board accommodation, as well as airfare costs will be covered should the course take place in person

---

Application Process

The application form is available here:

<https://bit.ly/3kr3yvl>

Deadline: 23:59 CET, 2 January 2022

The organizers encourage all candidates, irrespective of gender, disability, religious and ethnic backgrounds to apply. Please let us know should you require assistance related to disability in order to complete the application process.