OSCE Mission invites to public lectures

The OSCE Mission to Moldova invites all those interested to participate in its Public Lectures Program. The Program consists of a cycle of six lectures delivered by well-known professors from Belgium, Germany, Great Britain, Russia, Ukraine and the USA and lasts from 26 September to 28 November 2008.

The program aims to offer to Moldovan students and the interested public the opportunity to get acquainted with theories and experiences of conflict prevention and conflict management, regional relations, security policies and the role of mass-media in conflict settlement.

Lectures will be held at the Free International University, Aula Magnifica (4th floor), starting at 18:00, free access.
