» September - December 2019
The OSCE Dialogue Academy for Young Women* alumnae project

What is the Womentorship for Dialogue programme?

The OSCE Dialogue Academy for Young Women (DA) alumnae have united with the goal of sharing their knowledge and experiences with young women from Prishtinë/Priština and Belgrade through Womentorship for Dialogue programme, so that they can become agents of social change in their communities, and enhance their professional and personal skills through a mentorship programme based on peer learning and dialogue.

How does it work?

The program will match mentors and mentees from Prishtinë/Priština and Belgrade based on shared interests and skills. Each mentoring pair will follow individually established framework and a curriculum for their mentoring relationship, supported by resources focusing on gender equality, leadership, dialogue and a set of practical skills chosen by mentors. All materials will be available in Albanian and Serbian, in addition to English.

When and where?

The programme will start in September with the first meeting of all mentors and mentees on 27-29 September in Niš. Mentor to mentee meetings will take place from September to November via Skype or in person, depending on location of mentoring pairs. The second meeting of all mentors and mentees will take place in late December in Prishtinë/Priština, where results of the programme will be presented.
