Svetlana F. is sitting at the kitchen table in her duplex home in the Berlin district of Marzahn-Hellersdorf. A slim, 39-year-old woman, she wrings her hands as she relates what happened to her daughter more than three weeks ago. The conversation stops each time she is unable to hold back her tears. This will be her only interview with the media.

Fake: United Nations Admits Presence of Islamists among Ukrainian Armed Forces

Fake: Russian Soldier Looting in Chechnya Presented as Ukrainian

The so-called Novorossia news agency published a story accusing Ukrainian armed forces of robbing and looting local Ukrainians in the eastern war and illustrated the fake story with a photograph of a Russian soldier carrying two geese taken in Chechnya in 1995. A separatist fighter named Igor Yashchenko also accused...

Fake: Ukrainian Train Lost in Kazakhstan

📅 February 06, 2016 - 23:52          🏷 News

On February 1 the Russian site Lenta.ru, followed by various Ukrainian and Russian publications reported that a Ukrainian train headed for China and traveling along a new route bypassing Russia, was lost in Kazakhstan. According to Lenta.ru the train went missing in Kazakhstan after it was uncoupled for nonpayment. Kazakhstan allegedly demands payment for the train that traverse through its territory.

Fake: EU Countries Massively Denying Visas to Ukrainians

The newspaper Vesti has published a story with this misleading headline: "Ukrainians in mass rush for visas: such hopelessness not seen even in the 1990s". The author Alexandra Kharchenko writes that Ukrainians are desperately applying for Schengen visas, but find that instead they are increasingly being denied. Despite Ukraine-EU cooperation deepening and a visa-free regime likely to become a reality in the near future, the very process of applying for EU…
