

March 2016

INVITATION FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FROM CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANISATIONS
(CSOs) IN KOSOVO, 01/2016

PROJECT: SUPPORT TO PARTICIPATORY MECHANISMS FOR MONITORING AND INFLUENCING DECISION MAKING PROCESSES

The Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe Mission in Kosovo (hereinafter called “OMiK”) invites interested registered CSOs to express interest and apply for the following three separate activities in 2016:

- A. Certification of CSOs as professionals for monitoring and oversight of local level institutions in Kosovo.
- B. Training of smaller CSOs as professionals for monitoring and oversight of specific local level institutions in Kosovo.
- C. Implementation of small-scale projects to support women groups’ raising awareness on Gender Based Violence, with focus on Domestic Violence

It is anticipated that a CSO can apply for a maximum of 2 activities only. The project does not foresee direct funding to CSOs nor will it support staffing costs. All goods and services will be directly procured and managed by OSCE. Terms of reference and further details for each separate activity in English may be obtained from the OSCE web site (<http://www.osce.org/kosovo>) under “Events”.

Applications for the separate activities can be delivered in English on or before 04/04/2016 in the following email address fitim.xharra@osce.org

Or

in hard copy on the following address:

For: Public Participation Section OSCE Mission in Kosovo Prishtinë/Priština Abdyl Frashëri, nr. 37 AKTASH 10000 Prishtinë/Priština, Kosovo

For further information please contact Mr. Fitim Xharra, Democratization Department, OSCE Mission in Kosovo, at fitim.xharra@osce.org or 038/240100, ext. 1154.