DETAILED PROGRAMME OF THE 2010 ANNUAL SECURITY
REVIEW CONFERENCE, 14-16 JUNE 2010, VIENNA

Monday, 14 June 2010

10 a.m.-1 p.m.	Opening Session
11.15 a.m.-11.45 a.m.	Coffee break

Opening Address by:

- H.E. Mr. Konstantin Zhigalov, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Kazakhstan

Under the overall theme of Strengthening Indivisible Security, Recapturing Common Purpose and Building Trust and Transparency in the OSCE Area, the opening session will set the stage for the Conference by exploring the concept of indivisible security and how it relates to the security work undertaken by the OSCE and its participating States. The session will allow for an exchange of views on ways to re-establish trust and confidence among participating States and to recapture the sense of common purpose in dealing with current and future security challenges. In particular, this session will focus on ways to further improve the wider European security environment, taking into account the work carried out by the OSCE, as well as other international and regional organizations and institutions.

Chairperson: Ambassador Kairat Abdrakhmanov, Chairperson of the Permanent Council

Report by Ambassador Dr. György Molnár, Chairperson of the Forum for Security Co-operation

Rapporteur: Mr. Valerio Negro, Permanent Mission of Italy to the OSCE

3-6 p.m.	Working Session I: Transnational threats and challenges
4.30-4.50 p.m.	Coffee break

Working Session I will offer the opportunity for participants to discuss ways to further strengthen synergies in OSCE activities aimed at countering transnational threats to security. With reference to MC Decision No. 2/09 on further OSCE efforts to address transnational threats and challenges to security and stability, this session will explore the linkages between transnational threats such as terrorism and organized crime, including illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and trafficking in human beings, and consider the role of border security and management and anti-terrorism activities in combating these threats. Participants will also have an opportunity to consider the recommendations of the Secretary General contained in his final report pursuant to MC Decision No. 2/09. Moreover, participants are encouraged to discuss ways to comprehensively enhance cyber security in the OSCE area. The session will also allow participating States to exchange views with representatives of relevant international and regional organizations on how to enhance co-operation in countering transnational threats, taking into account the comparative advantages of the OSCE in addressing these challenges.

Keynote speakers:

- Mr. Jenishbek Jumanbekov, Director, Executive Committee of the Regional Counter-Terrorism Structure, Shanghai Co-operation Organization
- Ms. Maria Grazia Giammarinaro, OSCE Special Representative and Co-ordinator for Combating Trafficking in Human Beings

Moderator: Ambassador Heiner Horsten, Permanent Representative of Germany to the OSCE

Rapporteur: Mr. Dmitry Krayushkin, Permanent Mission of the Republic of Belarus to the OSCE

Tuesday, 15 June 2010

10 a.m.–1 p.m.	Working Session II: The role of the OSCE in early warning, conflict prevention and resolution, crisis management and post-conflict rehabilitation
11.30-11.50 p.m.	Coffee break

Building on previous discussions, including the 42nd Joint FSC-PC Meeting held on 10 March 2010, Working Session II will assess OSCE activities in early warning, conflict prevention and resolution, crisis management and post-conflict rehabilitation. In particular, it will review the OSCE activities related to crisis situations in its region, inter alia, armed conflicts, including in August 2008. The Session will examine the implementation of relevant OSCE norms, principles and commitments, discuss the need to further improve/update the OSCE toolbox in the above mentioned areas and to strengthen the OSCE's ability to move from early warning to early action. Participants are encouraged to discuss proposals put forward by participating States. Other topics may include examining the role for military and non-military confidence-building measures in the conflict cycle and a review of existing OSCE mechanisms and procedures.

Keynote speakers:

- Ambassador William H. Hill, Professor, United States National War College
- Brigadier General Giovanni Manione, Deputy Director, Crisis Management and Planning Directorate, General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union

Moderator: Ambassador Herbert Salber, Director of the OSCE Conflict Prevention Centre

Rapporteur: Mr. Donatas Butkus, Permanent Mission of Lithuania to the OSCE

1.15 p.m. - 2.45 p.m. Buffet Lunch hosted by the Kazakh Chairmanship (Hofburg Galerie)

3–5.45 p.m.	Working Session III: The role and perspectives of arms control and confidence- and security-building regimes in building trust in the evolving security environment
4.00-4.20 p.m.	Coffee break

With reference to paragraph 2 of MC Decision No. 16/09 on issues relevant to the Forum for Security Co-operation, Working Session III will focus on the current situation and perspectives in the area of conventional arms control and confidence- and security-building measures (CSBMs). Participants will have the opportunity to take stock of the work done since the Athens Ministerial Council and explore ways in which to strengthen the Organization's politico-military toolbox. Furthermore, the session will provide the opportunity to discuss how the OSCE can contribute to efforts aimed at preventing the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction in its area.

Keynote speakers:

- Ambassador Alyson Bailes, Professor, Iceland University
- Ambassador Vladislav Chernov, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation

Moderator: Ambassador Mara Marinaki, Permanent Representative of Greece to the OSCE

3–5.30 p.m.	Working session V: Review of OSCE police-related activities
--------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------

4.00-4.20 p.m.	Coffee break

Recalling PC Decision No. 914 on further enhancing OSCE police-related activities, Working Session V will be used to discuss how to focus and improve OSCE activities in this field and consider options for future OSCE engagement. Participants will have the opportunity to exchange views on the conclusions of the Annual Police Experts Meeting 2010 and on the report by the OSCE Secretary General on police-related activities of the OSCE executive structures up to the end of 2009. Participants are encouraged to reflect on comparative advantages of the OSCE in the policing area, lessons learned and ways to combat organized crime and terrorism by enhancing police-related activities in the OSCE area. In addition, this session will focus on the existing frameworks for co-operation with other international and regional actors in this area, in order to address threats in a co-ordinated and complementary way and to avoid duplication. This session will contribute to further discussions for the potential provision of a framework and strategic recommendations for future OSCE police-related activities.

Keynote speaker:

- Professor Dr. Ibrahim Cerrah, Turkish National Police Academy

Moderator: Mr. Kevin Carty, OSCE Senior Police Adviser

Rapporteur: Mr. Aaron Jackson, United States Mission to the OSCE

5.30-6 p.m.	Closing Session

Chairperson: Ambassador Kairat Abdrakhmanov

In the closing session, the Chairperson will present a first perception of the results of the working sessions, as well as recommendations made at the Conference on ways to follow up on those recommendations in order to enhance security dialogue. A particular focus will be given to proposals which might contribute to the Corfu Interim Report.
