

REGIONAL TRIAL MONITORING PROJECT

COMBATTING ORGANIZED CRIME AND CORRUPTION IN THE WESTERN BALKANS

A year of trial monitoring of serious organised crime and corruption cases.

July 2021-June 2022

A year ago, the OSCE, in co-operation with the European Commission, launched the Regional Trial Monitoring Project in five jurisdictions in the Western Balkans.

This is our journey

COVERAGE

We have five trial monitoring teams based in Tirana, Sarajevo, Pristina, Podgorica and Skopje, brought together by a Programme Co-ordinator based in the OSCE Secretariat in Vienna. As of May 2022, the Project monitors 188 serious organised crime and corruption cases across all five jurisdictions.

TEAM PROFILE

All our monitors are legal professionals, with a passion for justice and prosperity for their community.

VISION

We want to support a sustainable criminal justice system that can efficiently and effectively respond to serious organised crime and corruption.

Building on our milestones we will continue with our trial monitoring and analysis.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

Our teams will meet with over 200 judicial actors across the region in discussion forums in June 2022 to get a better insight to our observations. The analysis of all the data, collected over the first year of our project, will feed into our first findings and recommendations report (October 2022), which will be made available to judges and prosecutors in each participating jurisdiction.

HOW

Our teams, following the ODIHR methodology, select ongoing serious organised crime and corruption cases and monitor hundreds of hearings, review thousands of pages of legal documents and spend many hours in consultations with judges and prosecutors.

WHY

We seek to provide an evidence-based framework for future reform that meets real needs.
