1. The cover page could be used as a complement to submitting detailed forms adopted at the [First and Second] Meetings of the States parties in instances when the information to be provided in some of the forms in an annual report is the same as it would be in past reports. That is, when using the cover page, only forms within which there is new information would need to be submitted.
2. The cover page could be used as a substitute for submitting detailed forms adopted at the [First and Second] Meetings of the States parties only if all of the information to be provided in an annual report is the same as in past reports.
3. If an indication is made on the cover sheet that the information to be provided with respect to a particular form would be unchanged in relationship to a previous year's form, the date of submission of the previous form should be clearly indicated.

INFORMATION TO THE ARMED FORCES:

All soldiers of the Polish Armed Forces are instructed and trained in the International Humanitarian Law of Armed Conflict including the rules set by the Convention on Certain Conventional Weapons and its annexed Protocols. The relevant information is disseminated to them in the framework of:

- military and postgraduate studies, defence policy studies, operational-tactical studies, operational-strategic studies and qualification courses dedicated for candidates for professional officers, officers, military commanders and legal advisors organized by Military Universities, Academies and Officer's Schools;
- training, special and qualification courses for officers, non-commissioned officers, privates and civilian personnel realized in training centres of all armed services and in all military units;
- the routine process of improving professional qualifications of military personnel conducted by superiors and legal advisors in all military units;
- military exercises which require taking into account specific rules of the International Humanitarian Law norms and regulations;

Training in international law of armed conflicts and protection of cultural heritage is an important element of the preparation process of personnel for the peacekeeping and stabilization missions. All mission members are obliged to attend such training before deployment.

In 2018 Polish Naval Academy (PNA) organized International Conference of the International Humanitarian Law of Armed Conflict (including CCW and annexed Protocols). It was addressed to civilians and military personnel.

AMENDED PROTOCOL II

INFORMATION TO THE CIVILIAN POPULATION:

The Center for the Dissemination of International Humanitarian Law (IHL), attached to the Governing Board of the Polish Red Cross (PRC), which operates since 1977, is tasked with the dissemination of information on IHL and mission of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

The Center is running the largest IHL Library (over 5 thousand volumes) which contains a special section on conventional weapons regulations. The library is used by students and post-graduates in law, political sciences, and international relations, as well as secondary school students and PRC workers and volunteers from across the country.

During the year 2018, the PRC Center for the Dissemination of IHL organized number of seminars, meetings and lecturers devoted to international humanitarian law. Most of them contained topics which focused on legal aspects of landmines (including II Protocol to CCW). It is worth mentioning a few of the most important ones:

- XXII Polish School of International Humanitarian Law of Armed Conflict, in Radziejowice – an annual 5-days course for law and international relations students from civil and military universities, representatives of the Armed Forces, the Police, the Border Guard, the State Fire Service, Red Cross workers and volunteers. Lectures were given by experts on IHL from major polish Universities and Armed Forces.
- Lectures on means and methods of warfare during IHL courses for armed forces organized by Military Center for Civic Education – several lectures during 2018.
- XXI edition of Professor Remigiusz Bierzanek contest for the best Ph.D., MA and BA thesis in humanitarian law and human rights and knowledge about the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement;
- Coordination of the activities of the Commission for the Protection of the Emblem and related actions, including :
  - assessment of applications for use of the emblem,
  - interventions related to misuse on a national scale.
- Coordination of the activities of the IHL Dissemination Commission, including :
  - initiatives on promotion and dissemination of IHL,
  - networking and knowledge sharing,
  - publication and promotion of books.
