INFORMATION SHEET
REQUEST FOR SHORT-TERM OBSERVERS

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION
KYRGYZ REPUBLIC
15 October 2017

Following an official invitation from the government of the Kyrgyz Republic, based on the recommendation of the Needs Assessment Mission conducted from 24 to 26 May 2017, and in accordance with its mandate, the OSCE/ODIHR has established an Election Observation Mission (EOM) to observe the presidential election scheduled for 15 October 2017. Ambassador Alexandre Keltchewsky has been appointed Head of the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. The mission consists of 17 core team members based in Bishkek, and 26 long-term observers (LTOs) deployed throughout the country. The core team and LTOs come from a total of 23 OSCE participating States.

The OSCE/ODIHR requests participating States to second 350 (three hundred and fifty) short-term observers (STOs) to observe voting, counting, and the tabulation of results. STOs will be deployed in multinational teams of two, under a deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. In the interest of a broad and balanced representation among participating States, the OSCE/ODIHR requests that individual participating States nominate only up to 15 per cent of the total number of requested STOs.

Committed to achieving gender balance in its activities, the OSCE/ODIHR encourages OSCE participating States to second equal numbers of female and male STOs.

Seconding States should confirm visa requirements for their STOs. If required, visas must be obtained at the nearest embassy or consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic prior to arrival. In exceptional cases visas can also be issued on arrival at the airport in Bishkek. It is strongly recommended to obtain a visa before departure.

To facilitate accreditation of observers through the Central Commission for Elections and Referenda (CCER) and the issuance of visas (if required), the OSCE/ODIHR online mission registration form must be completed no later than 27 September 2017.

STOs are required to arrive in Bishkek by Wednesday 11 October, and depart (at the earliest) on Wednesday 18 October, in the morning. The STO schedule is provided below.

Given the possibility of a second round of the election, participating States may expect a second request for short-term observers with a very short deadline for registration, due to a requirement that observers be accredited at least 10 days prior to the second-round voting day. Participating States are therefore encouraged to select as observers for the second-round election individuals who already observed the first round on 15 October and thus will already be accredited.

Observers should strictly abide by the Code of Conduct for ODIHR Observers and the deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. The security and safety of observers is of the highest priority and will take precedence in EOM management, including the deployment plan. All observers will receive a security briefing upon arrival and are required to operate in accordance with security guidelines.

The working language of the EOM is English. All briefings, de-briefings, and reporting will be in English and all interpreters will work in local languages/English. All STOs must, therefore, have a good working knowledge of both written and spoken English.

The OSCE/ODIHR strongly encourages all observers to undertake the OSCE/ODIHR comprehensive e-learning course for observers, available at www.odihrobservers.org.

STOs are requested to familiarize themselves with the OSCE/ODIHR Election Observation Handbook, available online at www.osce.org/odihr/elections/68439.

STOs are kindly asked to refrain from commenting on mission-related issues via social media. In line with the Code of Conduct for ODIHR Observers, media communications regarding the electoral process and the substance of observations should be made only by the Head of Mission, ODIHR Spokesperson, or other responsible ODIHR officials.

A COPY OF THIS INFORMATION SHEET IS AVAILABLE ON THE OSCE/ODIHR WEBSITE AND SHOULD BE MADE AVAILABLE TO ALL SECONDED STOs.

1. Deployment Timetable

STOs will be deployed according to the following schedule:

Wednesday 11 October	Last date for arrival in Bishkek
Thursday 12 October	STO briefing (Day 1 – afternoon)
Friday 13 October	STO briefing (Day 2); deployment to the areas of observation
Saturday 14 October	Familiarization with areas of observation
Sunday 15 October	Election day
Monday 16 October	Continued observation of counting and tabulation of results; regional debriefing of STOs
Tuesday 17 October	STO return to Bishkek; central STO debriefing; reception
Wednesday 18 October	STO repatriation

a) Briefing

Before deployment, STOs will be provided with an in-depth briefing, which will include:

- code of conduct;
- legislative framework;

- overview of the country, campaign and the media situation;
- voting, counting, and tabulation procedures;
- observation forms;
- security situation;
- logistical and financial arrangements.

STOs will also be provided with briefing materials which will include all necessary electoral and logistical information, as well as observation forms to complete during the observation of voting, counting, and tabulation.

b) Deployment

The OSCE/ODIHR EOM will develop a deployment plan. STOs should strictly abide by the deployment plan and security instructions. STOs should not request special treatment with regard to deployment locations.

c) Debriefing

A debriefing for STOs will be organized after the election. This will provide an opportunity for STOs to discuss their main findings and share their conclusions with other observers and EOM members. The EOM will hold a press conference on the day after the election to present its preliminary findings and conclusions. A comprehensive final report will be issued by the OSCE/ODIHR approximately two months after the electoral process has been completed, taking into account findings of all observers.

2. Logistics and Security

a) Contact details

All logistical arrangements for the STOs will be organized by the EOM under the direction of:

Ruslan Ovezdurdyev, Operations Expert e-mail: ruslan.ovezdurdyev@odihr.kg; mobile phone: + 996 770 442203

b) Transportation/Accommodation

All STOs will be met at the Bishkek “Manas” International Airport by an OSCE/ODIHR EOM representative upon their arrival and transported to their accommodation. Transport and accommodation in Bishkek and in the areas of observation will be arranged by the EOM. Due to the limited availability of accommodation in Bishkek and the observation areas, STOs should be aware that double occupancy per room of observers of the same gender is possible, and relatively modest conditions may be expected in some of the observation areas.

For safety reasons and to prevent problems with transportation, observers are expected to use the accommodation arranged for them by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. The EOM will also make all arrangements for in-country travel to deployment areas and for on-site drivers, cars, and interpreters.

Should any of the observers choose not to stay in the accommodation arranged by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM, the seconding States should indicate this while registering online. If the OSCE/ODIHR is not notified in advance, STOs or the respective OSCE seconding State will be charged for the cost, regardless of whether the accommodation provided is used. It should be noted that the EOM cannot provide airport transfers and in-city transportation for STOs who choose to stay outside the designated accommodation.

STOs will deploy from Bishkek to the regions by bus, car, or plane.

The OSCE/ODIHR EOM will make necessary arrangements for the STOs to return to Bishkek on Tuesday 17 October, as well as arrange accommodation in Bishkek. The EOM will arrange transfers to the airport for all STOs.

c) Security

STOs must adhere to the Code of Conduct for ODIHR Observers, as outlined in the OSCE/ODIHR Election Observation Handbook, as well as security instructions and national laws.

A memo on security details for the STOs will be handed over to the observers upon arrival. STOs who choose not to stay in accommodation provided by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM will not be covered by the mission's security arrangements.

d) Luggage/Essential Items

Due to potential modest conditions in the regions, STOs are advised to bring with them the following items:

- appropriate attire for election day observation – business casual is recommended;
- torch/flashlight with spare bulb and battery;
- all necessary medication (case-specific);
- electricity converters (if needed) – European-style plug.

The OSCE/ODIHR EOM strongly recommends that STOs, when travelling by air, put essential items into their hand luggage, in case of late arrival of their luggage in Bishkek.

e) Communication

Each STO will be provided with a mobile phone and a local SIM card with credit, for work-related usage. Please note that using mobile phones for international calls and SMSs should be avoided. Such usage is very expensive and will quickly deplete allocated phone credit.

f) Time zone/Flight bookings

Local time in Bishkek is UTC/GMT +6 hour. Due to the limited number of scheduled flights to Bishkek, the OSCE/ODIHR EOM strongly encourages seconding States to make early flight bookings. To ensure operational flexibility, (e.g. in case of bad weather conditions), seconding States are advised to book changeable airline tickets.

3. Interpreters and Drivers

All observers will be organized in multinational teams of two persons under a deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. The OSCE/ODIHR EOM will assist each STO team with finding a driver/car and an interpreter. Even in cases where one team member speaks local languages, it will be necessary for that team to have an interpreter in order that both members of the team can have full access to complete and equal information as they carry on their observation duties.

4. Costs

It is projected that, while in country, each STO will incur the following costs, although some STOs may not require the full amount indicated below:

Operational/Transportation Cost	EUR
Airport transfers	30
In-city transportation (to and from STO briefing/debriefing)	40
In-country transportation (to and from deployment area)	100
Communication (SIM card/mobile phone/e-pen use)	20
Briefing costs (briefing, debriefing, briefing pack, meals)	175
Estimated cost to be incurred by ODIHR on behalf of STOs	365 EUR
Driver/car (EUR 25 per day @ 4 days per observer)*	100
Fuel (EUR 10 per day @ 4 days per observer)*	40
Interpreter (EUR 25 per day @ 4 days per observer)*	100
Transmission of observation forms per observer	10
Accommodation (7 nights @ max EUR 120/per night)	840
Meals & incidentals (approx. EUR 50 per day @ max 8 days)	400
Accommodation and meals for interpreter if needed (EUR 40 per night @ 4 nights per observer)*	160
Accommodation and meals for driver if needed (EUR 40 per night @ 4 nights per observer)*	160
Costs paid directly by the observers	1,810 EUR
Total cost per observer:	2,175 EUR

* The two members of each STO team will share equally the cost of drivers and interpreters. The amount above therefore represents half of these costs (i.e. for each STO).

The total cost per observer is estimated at EUR 2,175 (two thousand and one hundred seventy-five Euro), including EUR 1,810 (one thousand eight hundred and ten Euro) which the seconding States should supply to each observer in cash prior to their departure to Bishkek. The OSCE/ODIHR EOM is not able to validate or certify documents related to costs paid directly by the observers (receipts, invoices, contracts, etc.).

EUR 365 (three hundred and sixty-five Euro) is the projected cost per each STO to be incurred by the OSCE/ODIHR. After closure of the EOM, each seconding State will be billed by the OSCE/ODIHR on the basis of total actual expenses incurred and the number of seconded STOs. Payment instructions will be provided to the seconding States with the final invoice.

All of the above costs should be paid in local currency or Euro. The Euro is widely exchangeable locally, although other currencies can also be exchanged. While there are cash machines (ATMs) in Bishkek, most of them do not dispense foreign currency. ATMs are not available in some areas of deployment. Hotels outside Bishkek may not accept credit cards or foreign currency. STOs should be prepared to pay hotel bills outside Bishkek in cash and upon check-in. Travellers cheques must not be used. The local currency is the Kyrgyzstani Som (KGS). The exchange rate is approximately 1 EUR = 81.5 KGS.

5. Visas and Insurance

a) Visa

Seconding States should confirm visa requirements for their STOs. If required, visas must be obtained at the nearest embassy or consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic prior to arrival. It is strongly recommended to obtain visa before departure.

For STOs without an embassy or consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic in their country of residence, seconding States are requested to inform the OSCE/ODIHR office in Warsaw (Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik), as soon as possible in order to receive support, if necessary, with issuance of visas.

b) Insurance

STOs should ensure that they arrive with adequate health, accidental/life disability, emergency/medical evacuation, property, theft, and accident insurance, as this will not be provided by the OSCE/ODIHR. STOs must have a copy of their insurance policy with them, as well as two copies of the data page of their passport and the visa (if applicable).

6. Registration and Accreditation Process

After receiving this Information Sheet, all OSCE participating States considering secondment are requested to inform the OSCE/ODIHR on the number of STOs (to the attention of Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik; e-mail: sylwia.zwolinska@odihr.pl, anna.krzysztofik@odihr.pl no later than 21 September 2017.

To be nominated by the seconding States, STOs are required to create a personal account in the new Election Expert Database, fully complete their profile, and share it with their national focal point. The seconding States are requested to submit the names of proposed STOs using the Election Expert Database as soon as possible and no later than 21 September 2017; 17:00 (CET).

The seconding States which have not requested access to the Election Expert Database as national Focal Point yet (Note Verbale 218/2017, 5 June 2017) or require additional guidelines on the observers' registration process should contact Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik; e-mail: sylwia.zwolinska@odihr.pl, anna.krzysztofik@odihr.pl.

For the purposes of accreditation of STOs with the Central Commission for Elections and Referenda of the Kyrgyz Republic the online mission registration form must be completed and supporting documents attached by the end of 27 September 2017.

An official cover letter from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the seconding State or designated national focal point should be sent together with the list of STO names to the attention of Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik (e-mail: sylwia.zwolinska@odihr.pl, anna.krzysztofik@odihr.pl) by 27 September 2017.

IN ORDER TO MAKE ALL LOGISTICAL ARRANGEMENTS ON TIME, NO APPLICATIONS WILL BE CONSIDERED BY THE OSCE/ODIHR UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES AFTER 27 SEPTEMBER 2017.

STOs must not have any concurrent commitments that could produce a conflict of interest with the OSCE/ODIHR EOM.

The OSCE/ODIHR reserves the right to reject any candidate who is not capable of undertaking his/her activities in an impartial and objective manner, and to withdraw accreditation in case of any serious breach of the Code of Conduct for ODIHR Observers.

7. Other Information

Please note that all OSCE/ODIHR election observation interim reports, preliminary statements, final reports, election laws, and reviews of election laws are available at the OSCE/ODIHR website: www.osce.org/odihr.

Specific information on the EOM is available on the EOM website: <http://www.osce.org/odihr/elections/kyrgyzstan/333296>

All STOs will receive by email a copy of the OSCE/ODIHR EOM Observer Guide before their departure to Bishkek.

SHORT-TERM OBSERVER

Background:

ODIHR is the leading agency in Europe in the field of election observation. It co-ordinates and organizes the deployment of numerous observation missions with thousands of observers every year to assess the compliance of elections in OSCE participating States in line with OSCE commitments, other international obligations and standards for democratic elections, as well as national legislation. Its unique methodology provides an in-depth insight into all elements of an electoral process, and permits making concrete recommendations to further improve electoral processes.

Objective:

Under the guidance of the Head of Mission (HoM) and in close co-ordination with the Deputy Head of Mission (DHoM), assigned Long-term Observers (LTOs), and the ODIHR Election Department, the short-term observers (STOs) are deployed in multinational teams of two and are responsible for observing election day procedures in their assigned areas and reporting their findings accurately and efficiently to the mission headquarters.

Main Tasks:

Electoral Expertise

- Acquire detailed knowledge of the election law and procedures concerning election day;
- Acquire detailed knowledge of the electoral and political situation in the country;
- Become familiar with the ODIHR election observation methodology for observing election day, as reflected in the relevant ODIHR publications;
- Acquire knowledge of OSCE commitments and other international obligations and standards for democratic elections.
- Attend and report on meetings of local election authorities, where requested;
- Attend and report on political rallies and campaign events, where requested;
- Attend and participate in any other relevant meetings with other electoral stakeholders to cover issues deemed necessary by the HoM, DHoM and LTOs;
- Supervise local support staff;
- Abide by the ODIHR Observer Code of Conduct the security instructions and deployment plan of the OSCE/ODIHR EOM, as well as data protection responsibilities when processing the personal data of local staff.

Reporting

- Prepare and submit regular reports to assess the close of the campaign, voting, counting and the tabulation of results.

Requirements:

- Experience in public administration, non-governmental organizations, and/or international organizations, preferably involved in observing and/or organizing electoral processes, is desirable.
- Knowledge of the country and surrounding region is desirable but not essential.
- Command of English language is essential. STOs must be prepared to read briefing materials, attend briefing and de-briefing sessions, understand procedural instructions and complete forms accurately, all in English. Knowledge of local languages is desirable but not essential.
- Willingness and ability to work long hours in conditions which are sometimes difficult.
- Ability to work in a team and deal with difficult situations in a positive manner.

Deliverables:

- Regular reporting on the conduct of the elections in the area of deployment, as well as on any other issues covered during the mission.
