I. Indicative agenda

Introduction

Following the discussions in the framework of the Contact Group with the Mediterranean Partners for Co-operation in 2012, the OSCE Mediterranean Conference will focus primarily on one of the three dimensions of security, on a rotational basis. Since the 2013 OSCE Mediterranean Conference was focused on enhancing the role of women in public, political and economic life (third dimension), the 2014 OSCE Mediterranean Conference will focus on the first dimension of security (politico-military). It will provide opportunities for the sharing views and experiences among the OSCE participating States and Mediterranean Partners in view of identifying avenues for concrete co-operation and providing for exchange of best practices. The Conference will pursue a participatory approach, with limited time devoted to presentations of keynote speakers, and substantive inputs and exchanges from the floor. All participants are encouraged to actively contribute to the discussions.

INTERPRETATIVE STATEMENT UNDER PARAGRAPH IV.1(A)6 OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE
OF THE ORGANIZATION FOR SECURITY AND CO-OPERATION IN EUROPE

By the delegation of Spain:

“Thank you, Mr. Chairperson.

Spain, which is very interested in the development of our relations with the Mediterranean Partners for Co-operation and welcomes the decision just adopted in the Permanent Council approving the agenda and modalities of the upcoming 2014 OSCE Mediterranean Conference, would like to make an interpretative statement regarding the languages to be used in the Conference.

My delegation, which welcomes the fact that English and French can be used indiscriminately during the Conference, as this will foster the discussions with our Mediterranean Partners, nevertheless considers that this regime is exceptional and, as the decision itself states, should not serve as a precedent for future OSCE meetings of other types involving the participating States alone.

I request that this statement be attached to the Permanent Council decision that has been adopted.

Thank you.”
