Competitive call for Albanian investigative journalists

The OSCE Presence in Albania invites all Albanian investigative journalists working in Albania to participate in a challenging competition.

We are looking for the best investigative reports in print, TV, radio and online, regarding three topics: Education, Health and 2019 Earthquake consequences.

Investigative reports are tools for a better understanding, revealing and solving various problems of society, and the OSCE Presence in Albania is rewarding the journalists who bring their contributions to a better country.

Topics of investigative reports:

- Education
- Health system
- 2019 earthquake consequences

Prizes:

- Three prizes will be given, one for each section. Each winner will receive a laptop (total value for all three 4,000 Euro)

Who can apply:

- Any Albanian journalist working in Albania

How to apply:

- Please apply by 24 November 2020 via email to mdu-al@osce.org.

Application should include:

- CV
- Attachments or links to your report, documentary, film or articles published from 1 December 2019 to 1 November 2020

Investigative journalism is all about understanding, discovering, analyzing and reporting without fear!
