Interpretative statement under paragraph 79 (Chapter 6) of the Final Recommendations of the Helsinki Consultations

By the delegation of Albania:

“The delegation of the Republic of Albania to the OSCE expresses its satisfaction and high appreciation of the OSCE engagement, through its institutions and mechanisms, in seriously dealing with the tragic events that took place in Tetovo, former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, on 17 February 1995. We express our high appreciation also for the contribution it is making to defuse tensions, promote dialogue and mutual understanding in order to solve all outstanding problems in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.

In this light the Albanian delegation warmly thanks all the delegations, in particular the European Union and its Presidency, the United States of America and the Russian Federation for their role in making possible the adoption of a welcome decision today. The delegation of Albania maintains, at the same time, that the way in which this decision was taken and, thereby, the difficulties encountered, were because it was not taken in line with the ‘Final Recommendations of the Helsinki Consultations’, known as the Blue Book, paragraph 54. This delegation states that the way this decision was taken will not and should not create a precedent in taking future decisions. We kindly request that this Statement is recorded in the Journal of the Meeting.”
