Legal/formal basis for crime prevention in Saxony-Anhalt

- State police law
(lays down how to protect the public safety and order against threats and danger)
- Police service regulation
(lays down general aspects of how to carry out crime prevention in the entire Federal Republic of Germany)
- Decree of the Ministry of the Interior
operative since February 2010
(lays down the specific tasks in the framework of crime prevention in Saxony-Anhalt on the several levels of the State police)

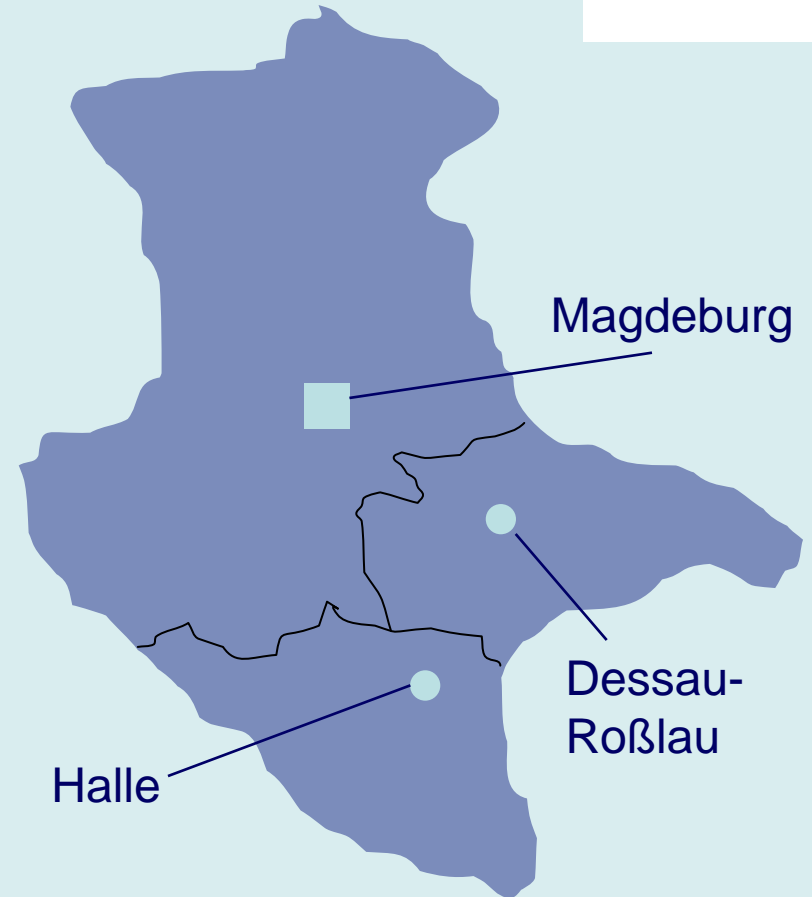

Main standards of crime prevention

- All crime prevention activities must be based on current crime development or political demand
- Behaviour oriented measures should bring people to become more aware of security risks and to behave adequately
- Potential perpetrators should be prevented from committing (other) offences
- The sensation of public safety must be improved
- Evaluation of programs is compulsory
- Police is not responsible for communicating socially acceptable norms and manners to children

The different State police levels relevant to crime prevention

- Moi
- State office of investigations (State level)
- Three police headquarters
- fourteen police stations (municipal level)
