

Towards inclusive partnership: How Business can translate obligations into Mitigation of Human Trafficking

Global Initiative against Transnational Organized Crime
www.globalinitiative.net

What the GI is and what we do

The Global Initiative against Transnational Organized Crime seeks to improve the evidence basis on contemporary threats; provide a platform to promote debate across sectors, and catalyse innovative approaches that can serve as the building blocks of a global strategy to counter organized crime.

We are a Network to Counter Networks.

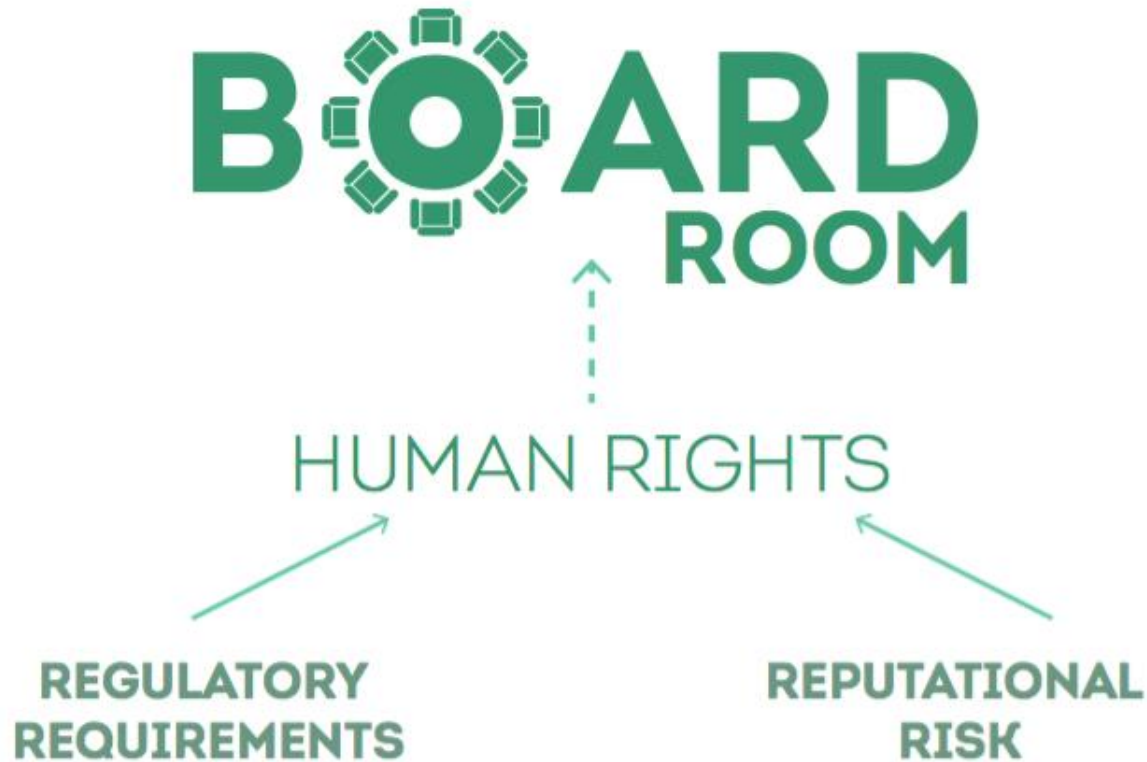

Benefits of addressing Human Trafficking in supply chains

- Understanding, mitigating, and managing the risks
- HT -> direct impact on business ability to manage their supply chains
- It also affects how a corporation is perceived

How to translate obligations into action

Understanding the Needs of the Private Sector

Types of technical /guidance material sought:

1. Guidance for regional area(s) where companies operate, including region-specific political dynamics and socio- economic challenges and how to address them.
2. Training materials (e-learning tool, app) to educate employees from relevant departments (marketing, HR, compliance, CR)
3. Guidance on how to avoid purchasing practices that increase the risk of human trafficking and forced labour in the supply chain.
