If you are creative and interested in the topic, if you are willing to contribute and share your thoughts and ideas with us, and if you are coming from the areas covered by the OSCE Mission in Kosovo and OSCE Mission to Serbia, send us up to three visual artworks via e-mail by 14 September 2020!

The call is open to everyone, regardless of gender or age. To participate, you do not have to be a professional artist! We are welcoming your thoughts and perspectives on the topic. Selected submissions will be part of an exhibition aiming to foster cooperation among young women and men interested in arts, while at the same time promoting values of 'togetherness'. The exhibition will be presented on the Dialogue Academy social networks with the support of the DokuFest¹.

Three best artworks will receive valuable prizes. By sending the content participants declare that the work is their own intellectual property and they accept that their work will be used for promotional purposes.

HOW TO APPLY?

Send an email to oscedialogueacademy@gmail.com with up to three submissions per person, containing description/message/slogan of your artwork (up to 5 sentences), together with your personal details (name, address, phone number, email, and a few lines about yourself). We are open to receiving visual artworks such as photography, 2D digital art, video art, interactive art, and paintings dealing with the topic of togetherness. For more information, please send us an email with your questions.

Dialogue Academy for Young Women is part of the 'Follow Us' Initiative supported by the OSCE Mission in Kosovo and OSCE Mission to Serbia. The academy gathers and empowers young women from Belgrade and Prishtinë/Priština by educating them on issues related to women's role in promoting dialogue, reconciliation, and cooperation.
