

ELENA REVUTSKAYA

Born: 21 November 1956 in Sahalin

Education - Architect.

1983-1985 Architect

1985-1992 Art Editor at the Publishing House "Timpul".

1992-1994 Art Editor at the Publishing House "Universities".

Since 1994 - freelance artist.

Private architect, interior designer, painter, illustrator of child books.

Illustrated a three-volume edition "Neznaika" by N. Nosov, "Peppy the Long Stocking" and "Ronny-Rubber's daughter" by Astrid Lindgren.

Illustrated over 20 editions for children.

Ms. Revutskaya participated in the international exhibitions in Toronto, Moscow, Chisinau, Krakow and Warsaw.

Paints mostly in water color and oil. Elena tries to transpose ordinary life of Moldovan people on canvas, as well as flowers and architecture. Painting horses represents another passion for Ms. Revutskaya.

Elena's works are in private collections in the Republic of Moldova, Russian Federation, Ukraine, Germany, Poland, Greece and USA.