Call for Expression of Interest for “Political Engagement of Young Leaders” Seminar on the United Nations Security Council Resolution (UNSCR) 2250

Are you a young peacebuilder between the age of 18 to 29, who feels a strong commitment to building meaningful and participatory peace in Kosovo? Are you interested in learning more about the UNSC resolution 2250 on Youth, Peace and Security and how you can implement it locally? Would you like to commit yourself to developing strategies to hold further discussions with decision-makers? Are you ready to commit time and effort to develop and implement an initiative with likeminded people? Then, the Political Engagement of Young Leaders seminar is for you!

The Political Engagement of Young Leaders seminar seeks to encourage youth’s contribution towards the implementation of UNSCR 2250. During the seminar:

- You will gain knowledge in addressing the key pillars for action of UNSCR 2250: participation, protection, prevention, partnerships, disengagement and reintegration;
- You will have the opportunity to contribute to the development of modalities and specific areas of engagement in promoting UNSCR 2250 locally;
- You will be able to get engaged with other OSCE programme alumni as well as young men and women politicians.

The seminar will take place on 7 June 2018. To apply, please send your CV and Motivation letter written either in English, Albanian or Serbian language by 28th of May 2018 by e-mail to: aibek.zhumashukurov@osce.org.

Please note that only short listed candidates will be contacted for an interview.
