

Episode 01: Reaching the Trust Together

Aired 07 September 2015

Watch online (in Montenegrin):

<http://www.rtcg.me/tv/emisije/informativni/otvoreno/103016/otvoreno-07092015.html>

Pilot show, in which the guests together announced the series and discussed the ways in which institutions they are representing are disclosing information to the public and how they conduct their PR activities.

Guests:

- Ambassador Janina Hrebickova, Head of the OSCE Mission in Montenegro
- Deputy Prime Minister, Dusko Markovic
- President of the Supreme Court, Vesna Medenica
- Supreme State Prosecutor, Ivica Stankovic
- Interior Minister, Rasko Konjevic

Background

The OSCE Mission to Montenegro, in co-operation with the Public Broadcaster RTCG, launched series of TV talk shows to open public dialogue among all segments of society on responsibilities of institutions, media, civil society and participation of citizens in societal issues.

The programme will consist of 20 TV shows, with participation of eminent national and international experts from the judiciary, the media, civil society, academia and international organizations, who will share best practices, in trying to find a balance between ensuring media freedoms and protection of human rights and freedoms.

The audience will also be able to participate in the programme via social networks - Twitter and Facebook.

The talk show is aired in Montenegrin language.

Learn more: www.osce.org/montenegro/otvoreno