

Working Session 1 Tolerance and non Discrimination
Set My People Free

The West has worked successfully for many years to establish a society build on democratic values of freedom, equality and Justice which are based on on the Universal declaration of Human Rights.

Tolerance should be based on the implementations of these basic values for the individual. If for the sake of tolerance we breech these values we comprise democracy and the right of the individual.

Kamal Fahmi
Set My People Free Director