A team of ODIHR experts is sent to assess the pre-election environment. Based on the identified needs, they recommend the type and size of the election observation activity:

- First STO and LTO secondment
- First Campaign
- First ODIHR election mission
- First Long-term observers deployed
- New Election Expert

Members of parliamentary assemblies may join election day observation activities:

- All analysts look into participation of these groups in elections:
  - women
  - people with disabilities
  - national minorities
