Bishkek (AKIpress) - Chairman of the State Security Service of Kyrgyzstan Janybek Bakiev was conferred higher rank of "lieutenant-general". The decree was signed on September 16th 2009 by President Kurmanbek Bakiev.

Janybek Bakiev distinguished by the fact that as a first deputy of National Security Service (NSS) has organized to put a large quantity of drugs in a suitcase of opposition leader Omurbek Tekebaev who was detained in Warsaw, even though the court in Warsaw managed objectively and found out that this is special services of Kyrgyzstan doing the business and released Tekebaev. All disadvantaged cases in Kyrgyzstan, corruption in the Interior Ministry, limited rights of citizens to protest, assembly and freedom of expression organized by secret orders of Janybek Bakiev, so that "he deserved this title". OSCE is implementing a program of Internal Affairs and democracy every day in Kyrgyzstan is deteriorating. 24-25th of September the Minister of the Interior Ministry for this purpose took the OSCE Permanent Council and promised to extend the program until 2015. The meeting was organized in the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Austria
