The OSCE/ODIHR has established an Election Observation Mission (EOM) to observe the pre-term parliamentary elections in the Kyrgyz Republic. The mission, headed by Mr. Nikolai Vulchanov, consists of 11 core team members and 20 long-term observers from 20 OSCE participating States. The pre-term parliamentary elections are scheduled for 16 December 2007.

The OSCE/ODIHR requests the participating States to second two hundred and fifty (250) short-term observers (STOs) to observe voting, counting and the tabulation of results. STOs will be deployed in multinational teams of two under a deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. In the interest of a balanced representation among participating States in EOMs, the OSCE/ODIHR requests each participating State to nominate no more than 10 percent of the total number of requested STOs. In addition, committed to achieving a better gender balance in its activities, the OSCE/ODIHR encourages OSCE participating States to continue to second female STOs.

To facilitate accreditation for observers by the Central Election Commission (CEC) and the issuance of visas for the Kyrgyz Republic (country-specific), the attached CEC accreditation form (in Russian original, English translation attached only for information), as well as the OSCE/ODIHR online registration form, must be completed and returned to the OSCE/ODIHR no later than 30 November 2007.

Seconding States should verify visa requirements for their STOs. If required, visas must be obtained at the nearest Embassy or Consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic prior to their arrival in the Kyrgyz Republic. Only STOs without diplomatic representation of the Kyrgyz Republic in their country of residence can be issued an entry visa at the airport upon arrival. No exceptions can be made. Participating States with no diplomatic representation of the Kyrgyz Republic should inform the OSCE/ODIHR office in Warsaw in advance, in order for the OSCE/ODIHR to make arrangements for issuance of visa upon arrival.

The working language of the OSCE/ODIHR EOM is English. All briefings, de-briefings and reporting will be conducted in English, and all interpreters will work in local language/English. Therefore, STOs must have a good working knowledge of English both written and spoken. Knowledge of the Kyrgyz or Russian languages is an asset. Upon demand the central STO briefing and debriefing can be simultaneously translated into Russian.

All STOs should arrive in Bishkek on 12 December at the latest and depart on 19 December at the earliest. Details are provided below. Due to the scale of the mission, and the relatively limited number of regular flights to Bishkek, the OSCE/ODIHR strongly encourages participating States to make early flight bookings.

All observers should strictly abide by the OSCE/ODIHR Code of Conduct and deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM.

The security and safety of observers is of the highest priority and will take precedence in OSCE/ODIHR EOM management, including the deployment plan. The observers will receive a security briefing from the EOM upon arrival and will be required to operate in accordance with security guidelines.

A COPY OF THIS INFORMATION SHEET IS AVAILABLE ON THE OSCE/ODIHR WEBSITE AND SHOULD BE MADE AVAILABLE TO ALL SECONDED STOs.

2. Logistics

a) Contact details

All logistical arrangements for STOs will be organized by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM under the direction of Logistics Experts Jane Kareski and Vafo Mamadnazarov.
E-mail: jane.kareski@eom.kg
Mobile: +996 773 566551
E-mail: vafo.mamadnazarov@eom.kg
Mobile: +996 773 565143

b) Transportation/Accommodation

The STOs will be met at the airport in Bishkek and transported to their accommodation. All accommodation in Bishkek and areas of observation will be arranged by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. Due to the limited availability of accommodation in Bishkek and the observation areas, STOs should be aware that there may be a requirement for observers of the same gender to share rooms with colleagues, and that relatively modest conditions may be expected.

For safety reasons and to prevent problems with transportation, observers should use the accommodation arranged for them by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. However, should any of the observers choose not to stay in the accommodation arranged by the EOM, the seconding States should indicate this while registering on-line. If the OSCE/ODIHR is not notified in advance, STOs or the respective OSCE participating States will be charged for the cost regardless of whether they use the accommodation provided or not. It should also be noted that the OSCE/ODIHR EOM cannot provide in-city transportation for STOs who choose to stay outside the designated accommodation.

The OSCE/ODIHR EOM will also arrange in-country travel to deployment areas and for on-site drivers, cars and interpreters. STOs will start to be deployed on 14 December by air, rail and road.
STOs deployed to areas other than Bishkek will travel back to Bishkek on Monday, 17 December 2007 or early Tuesday, 18 December, flights permitting. Arrangements will again be made by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM for their accommodation in Bishkek, as well as arrangements for their transportation to the airport.

c) Security

A memo on security arrangements for the STOs will be provided to the STOs upon their arrival. STOs who choose not to stay in accommodation provided by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM will not be covered by the mission’s security arrangements.

d) What to bring

Due to living conditions in the Kyrgyz Republic, possible lack of electricity in some places, and modest accommodation, STOs are advised to bring with them the following items:

- torch/flashlight with spare bulb and battery;
- all necessary medication (case-specific);
- sleeping bag;
- warm clothing.

The OSCE/ODIHR EOM strongly recommends that STOs, while traveling by airplane, put items of immediate need into carry-on luggage, in case of late arrival of the luggage in Bishkek. STOs should travel with limited luggage as internal flights only allow for 15 kg of luggage.

e) Flights

Local time in Bishkek is GMT + 6 hours (Vienna + 5 hours).

Due to the relatively limited number of regular flights to Bishkek, the OSCE/ODIHR EOM strongly encourages participating States to make early flight bookings.

3. Interpreters and Drivers

All observers will be organized in multi-national teams of two persons under a deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. Each team will have an interpreter and car/driver. Even in cases where one team member speaks Kyrgyz or Russian, it will still be necessary for that team to have an interpreter in order that both members of the team can have full access to complete and equal information as they carry out their observation duties.

4. Costs

It is projected that each STO will incur the following costs, although some STOs may not require the full amount indicated below:

Total cost per STO: 1,820

* The two members of each STO team will share equally the cost of drivers and interpreters. The amount above therefore represents half of these costs.

The total cost per one observer is estimated at EUR 1,820 (one thousand eight hundred twenty Euro) including EUR 1,495, which the participating States should supply to each observer in cash prior to their departure to Bishkek.

EUR 325 is a projected cost per each STO. After closure of the OSCE/ODIHR EOM, each seconding participating State will be billed by the ODIHR on the basis of total actual expenses incurred and the number of seconded STOs. Payment instructions will be provided to the seconding states with the final invoice.

Participating States must ensure that STOs arrive with sufficient funds in Euro (EUR) to cover these costs of EUR 1,495. STOs should also have sufficient cash in Euro or Dollars to cover any other personal expenses, such as telephone calls. All cash should preferably be in new bank notes, as it may be difficult to exchange old bank notes.

While there are cash machines (ATMs) in Bishkek, they do not dispense Euro or Dollars and may not be available in other areas of deployment. Hotels outside Bishkek may not accept credit cards. STOs should be prepared to pay hotel bills outside Bishkek in cash and upon check-in. Travellers cheques should not be used. The current rate of the local currency (Kyrgyz Som) to Euro is approximately 50 KGS to 1 EUR.

5. Visas and Insurance

Seconding States should verify visa requirements for their STOs. If required, visas must be obtained at the nearest Embassy or Consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic prior to their arrival in the Kyrgyz Republic.

Only STOs without diplomatic representation of the Kyrgyz Republic in their country of residence can be issued an entry visa at the airport upon arrival. No exceptions can be made. Participating States with no diplomatic representation of the Kyrgyz Republic should inform the OSCE/ODIHR office in Warsaw in advance, in order for the ODIHR to make arrangements for issuance of visa upon arrival.

IMPORTANT: All short-term observers should ensure they arrive with adequate health, accidental/life disability, emergency/medical evacuation, property, theft and accident insurance, as this will not be provided by the OSCE/ODIHR. STOs must have a copy of their insurance policy with them as well as two copies of the data page of their passport.
6. Registration and Accreditation Process

After receiving this information sheet, all OSCE participating States sending STOs should submit a list of names (first name, last name, passport number) of seconded STOs and the completed Central Commission for Elections and Referendums (CEC) accreditation form (attached) for each STO as soon as possible to the OSCE/ODIHR for the attention of Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik.

All sending States/organizations should be aware that after the registration deadline, they will not be able to modify, complete or withdraw the participation of a short-term observer on-line. They should contact Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik in the OSCE/ODIHR Election Department to make changes, if necessary.

IN ORDER TO ENSURE ALL LOGISTICAL ARRANGEMENTS AT THE DUE LEVEL, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL THE OSCE/ODIHR ACCEPT ANY ON-LINE APPLICATIONS FOR REGISTRATION OR CEC ACCREDITATION FORMS AFTER 30 NOVEMBER 2007.
