Mandate

Decision no. 17/06, Improvement of the consultative process:

- Discuss human dimension issues, including implementation of the commitments
- Support the preparation of the HDIM and other human dimension meetings
- Consider cross-dimensional issues with a particular connection to the human dimension, when so requested by the Chairmanship in consultation with participating States
- Discuss recommendations to the Permanent Council on the programme of work, including actions to follow up on recommendations made at the human dimension meetings.

Main objectives for 2011 HDC

Pragmatic, outcome-oriented approach, in close cooperation with the Lithuanian Chairmanship that aims to:

- Enhance trust and confidence,
- Produce concrete outcomes,
- Allocate time and resources efficiently to achieve the necessary formal decisions.

Work programme

- Builds on the Astana Declaration, incl. many issues that have been taken up by participating States in the Corfu Process and during the preparations for the Astana Summit (draft framework for action).
- Balanced work programme responding to interests and issues of concern of the different participating States in the OSCE.
- Topics where a consensus seems achievable by the end of the year as well as topics where this is realistically not possible with an aim to create a working environment which allows a constructive dialogue on difficult issues as well.
