At the invitation of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) of the Kyrgyz Republic and based on the recommendation of the Needs Assessment Mission, OSCE/ODIHR has established an Election Observation Mission (EOM) to observe the presidential election scheduled for 30 October 2011. Ms. Corien Jonker has been appointed Head of the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. The mission consists of 14 core team members based in Bishkek, and 28 long-term observers (LTOs) deployed throughout the country. A total of 22 OSCE participating States are represented.

OSCE/ODIHR requests participating States to second three hundred and fifty (350) short-term observers (STOs) to observe voting, counting and the tabulation of results. STOs will be deployed in multinational teams of two, under a deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. In the interest of a broad and balanced representation among participating States in the EOM, OSCE/ODIHR requests that individual participating States nominate only up to 10 per cent of the total number of requested STOs.

Committed to achieving gender balance in its activities, OSCE/ODIHR encourages OSCE participating States to second equal numbers of female and male STOs.

Seconding States should confirm visa requirements for their STOs. If required, visas must be obtained at the nearest Embassy or Consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic prior to their arrival. Visas can only be issued at the airport in case an STO resides in a State without diplomatic representation of the Kyrgyz Republic.

To facilitate accreditation of observers through the Central Election Commission (CEC) of the Kyrgyz Republic and the issuance of visas (if required), the OSCE/ODIHR online registration form must be completed no later than Wednesday 12 October 2011. All STOs are required to arrive in Bishkek by Wednesday 26 October and depart (at the earliest) on Wednesday 2 November in the morning. The STO activity schedule is provided below.

In the event of a second round, participating States may expect a second request for short-term observers with a very short deadline for registration. Participating States are, therefore, encouraged to second individuals who already observed the first round on 30 October and, thus, will have already been accredited as observers for the second-round of the election.

Observers should strictly abide by the OSCE/ODIHR Observer Code of Conduct and deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. The security and safety of observers is of the highest priority and will take precedence in EOM management, including pre/post deployment from/to Bishkek and the deployment plan. All observers will receive a security briefing upon arrival and are required to operate in accordance with security guidelines upon entry into the Kyrgyz Republic.

The working language of the EOM is English. All briefings, de-briefings and reporting will be conducted in English and all interpreters will work in local languages/English. All STOs must, therefore, have a good working knowledge of both written and spoken English.

A COPY OF THIS INFORMATION SHEET IS AVAILABLE ON THE OSCE/ODIHR WEBSITE AND SHOULD BE MADE AVAILABLE TO ALL SECONDED STOs.

2. Logistics

a) Contact details

All logistical arrangements for the STOs will be organized by the EOM under the direction of:

Julian Cheasley, Operations Expert
julian.cheasley@eom.kg; mobile phone: +996 778 80 91 40

b) Transportation/Accommodation

All STOs will be met at Manas International Airport in Bishkek by an OSCE/ODIHR representative upon their arrival and transported to their accommodation. Transport and accommodation in Bishkek and in the areas of observation will be arranged by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. Due to the limited availability of accommodation in Bishkek and the observation areas, STOs should be aware that double occupancy per room of observers of the same gender is very likely, and relatively modest conditions may be expected in some of the observation areas.

Due to mid day check-in times at hotels in Bishkek and the majority of very early morning flights, STOs should be prepared to pay for accommodation of the night / morning of arrival in Bishkek.

For safety reasons and to prevent problems with transportation, observers are expected to use the accommodation arranged for them by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. The OSCE/ODIHR EOM will also make all arrangements for in-country travel to deployment areas and for on-site drivers, cars and interpreters.

However, should any of the observers choose not to stay in the accommodation arranged by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM, the seconding States should indicate this while registering on-line. If OSCE/ODIHR is not notified in advance, STOs or the respective OSCE participating States will be charged for the cost, regardless of whether the accommodation provided is used. It should be noted that the OSCE/ODIHR EOM cannot provide in-city transportation and security cover for STOs who choose to stay outside the designated accommodation.

STOs will deploy from Bishkek to the regions by bus, car and or airplane.

STOs are to be made aware that domestic flights within the Kyrgyz Republic are only operated by C and D rated airlines. STOs seconded to EOM agree to fly with such rated airlines if deployment so requires.

The OSCE/ODIHR EOM will make necessary arrangements for the STOs to return to Bishkek on Monday 31 October or Tuesday 1 November, as well as arrange accommodation in Bishkek. The EOM will arrange transfers to the airport for all STOs.

c) Security
A memo on security for STOs will be handed over to the observers upon arrival. STOs who choose not to stay in accommodation provided by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM will not be covered by the mission’s security arrangements. STOs who arrive on or before the 26 October, will participate in an organised tour of Bishkek and the surrounding area. The aim is to reduce safety and security incidents towards or against STOs prior to the STO briefing and subsequent deployment to their areas of observation.

d) What to bring
Due to potential modest conditions in the regions, STOs are advised to bring with them the following items:

- Appropriate attire for election day observation – business casual is recommended;
- torch/flashlight with spare bulb and battery;
- all necessary medication (case-specific);
- electricity converters (if needed) – Kyrgyz Republic is 220V, European style plug;
- Sleeping bag
The OSCE/ODIHR EOM strongly recommends that STOs, while travelling by air, put essential items into the hand luggage, in case of late arrival of their luggage in Bishkek.

e) Communication
STO teams will be provided with a mobile phone and a local SIM card with credit. Please note that using mobile phones for international calls and SMSs should be avoided. Such usage is very expensive and will quickly deplete allocated phone credit.

f) Flights Timetable
Local time in Bishkek is UTC or GMT +6 hour. The arrival times for international flights to Bishkek are mainly in the early morning. Due to the limited number of scheduled flights to Bishkek, the OSCE/ODIHR EOM strongly encourages participating States to make early flight bookings. To ensure operational flexibility, (e.g. in case of bad weather conditions), participating States are advised to book changeable airline tickets.

3. Interpreters and Drivers

All observers will be organized in multinational teams of two persons under a deployment plan prepared by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. Each team will be provided with an interpreter and a car/driver by the OSCE/ODIHR EOM. Even in cases where one team member speaks local languages, it will be necessary for that team to have an interpreter in order that both members of the team can have full access to complete and equal information as they carry on their observation duties.
4. Costs

It is projected that, while in country, each STO will incur the following costs, although some STOs may not require the full amount indicated below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Operational/Transportation Cost</th>
<th>EUR</th>

<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Costs paid directly by the observers</td>
<td>1,885 EUR</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total cost per observer:</td>
<td>2,210 EUR</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* The two members of each STO team will share equally the cost of drivers and interpreters. The amount above therefore represents half of these costs (i.e. for each STO).

The total cost per observer is estimated at EUR 2,210 (two thousand two hundred and ten EUR), including EUR 1,885 (one thousand eight hundred and eighty five EUR) which the participating States should supply to each observer in cash prior to their departure to Bishkek.

EUR 325 (three hundred and twenty five EUR) is the projected cost per each STO to be incurred by OSCE/ODIHR. After closure of the EOM, each seconding State will be billed by OSCE/ODIHR on the basis of total actual expenses incurred and the number of seconded STOs. Payment instructions will be provided to the seconding States with the final invoice.

All of the above costs should be paid in local currency. Visa costs, if required, may be paid in EUR or USD. The USD is the predominant foreign currency throughout the Kyrgyz Republic, although Euro is widely exchangeable in major cities. While there are cash machines (ATMs) in Bishkek, they do not dispense foreign currency and are not available in some areas of deployment. Hotels outside Bishkek may not accept credit cards or foreign currency. STOs should be prepared to pay hotel bills outside Bishkek in cash and upon check-in. Travellers cheques must not be used. The local currency in the Kyrgyz Republic is the KGS SOM. The exchange rate is approximately 1 EUR = 63 KGS, 1 USD = 46 KGS

5. Visas and Insurance

Seconding States should confirm visa requirements for their STOs. If required, visas must be obtained at the nearest Embassy or Consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic prior to their arrival.

For STOs without an Embassy or Consulate of the Kyrgyz Republic in their country of residence, seconding States are requested to inform the OSCE/ODIHR office in Warsaw (Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik – see below), as soon as possible in order to receive support, if necessary, with issuance of visas at Manas airport. Visas can only be issued at the airport in case an STO resides in a State without a diplomatic representation of the Kyrgyz Republic.

STOs receiving a visa at the airport must have two passport-size photographs with them. Issuance of the visas at the airport costs approximately 70 USD (preferred currency) or the equivalent amount in EURO. STOs should have the exact amount of bank notes prepared.

IMPORTANT: All short-term observers should ensure that they arrive with adequate health, property, theft and accident insurance, as this will not be provided by OSCE/ODIHR. STOs must have a copy of their insurance policy with them, as well as two copies of the data page of their passport and the visa (if applicable).

6. Registration and Accreditation Process

Registration of STOs

After receiving this information sheet, all OSCE participating States sending STOs should submit a list of names (first name, last name, passport number), passport data page scan, signed CEC accreditation form (as attached to this document), ID Photo (preferably JPEG) of seconded STOs to OSCE/ODIHR for the attention of Sylwia Zwolinska or Anna Krzysztofik.

http://stodb.odihr.pl

This on-line Registration Form will be available from 27 September until 12 October 2011.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION
KYRGYZ REPUBLIC
30 OCTOBER 2011

Post title: Short-Term Observer (STO)
Title of Supervisor: Head of OSCE/ODIHR Election Observation Mission (EOM)

STOs are deployed throughout the country in multinational two-person teams to assess the close of the campaign, voting, counting and the tabulation of results. Participating States are urged to second STOs with relevant election experience and inter-personal skills.

STOs must adhere to the OSCE/ODIHR Observer Code of Conduct, as outlined in the OSCE/ODIHR Election Observation Handbook, security instructions and national laws.

3. Excellent health.
4. Willingness to work long hours in conditions which are sometimes difficult.
5. Ability to work in a team and deal with difficult situations in a positive manner.

Knowledge of the country and surrounding region is desirable but not essential. STOs must be prepared to read briefing materials, attend briefing and de-briefing sessions, understand procedural instructions and complete evaluation forms accurately, all in English. Local language ability is an asset. STOs must not have any concurrent commitments that could produce a conflict of interest with the EOM.

OSCE/ODIHR reserves the right to reject any candidate who is not capable of undertaking his/her activities in an impartial and objective manner, and to withdraw accreditation in case of any serious breach of the OSCE/ODIHR Observer Code of Conduct.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Accreditation

STOs require accreditation from the relevant authority before they can undertake their observer duties. The EOM will forward the names of STOs to the relevant authority in advance to facilitate the accreditation process. An accreditation form for each STO must be submitted in advance of arrival.

Briefing

Before deployment, STOs will be provided with an in-depth briefing, which will include:
• code of conduct;
• legislative framework;
• overview of the country, campaign and the media situation;
• voting, counting and tabulation procedures;
• observation forms;
• security situation; and
• logistical and financial arrangements.

STOs will also be provided with briefing materials which will include all necessary electoral and logistics information, as well as observation forms to complete during the observation of voting, counting, and vote tabulation.

STOs are requested to familiarize themselves with the OSCE/ODIHR Election Observation Handbook, available online at www.osce.org/odihr/elections/68439.

Deployment

The OSCE/ODIHR EOM will develop a deployment plan. STOs should abide strictly by the deployment plan and security instructions. STOs should not request special treatment with regard to deployment locations.

Debriefing

A debriefing for STOs will be organized after the election. This will provide an opportunity for STOs to discuss their major findings and share their conclusions with other observers and EOM members. The EOM will hold a press conference on the day after the elections to present its preliminary findings and conclusions. A comprehensive final report will be issued by OSCE/ODIHR approximately two months after the election process has been completed, taking into account findings of all observers.
OSCE/ODIHR OBSERVER CODE OF CONDUCT

- Observers will maintain strict impartiality in the conduct of their duties and will, at no time, publicly express or exhibit any bias or preference in relation to national authorities, parties, candidates, or with reference to any issues in contention in the election process.

- Observers will undertake their duties in an unobtrusive manner and will not interfere in the election process. Observers may raise questions with election officials and bring irregularities to their attention, but they must not give instructions or countermand their decisions.

- Observers will remain on duty throughout Election Day, including observation of the vote count and, if instructed, the next stage of tabulation.

- Observers will base all conclusions on their personal observations or on clear and convincing facts or evidence.

- Observers will not make any comments to the media on the election process or on the substance of their observations, and any comment to the media will be limited to general information about the observation mission and the role of the observers.

- Observers will not take any unnecessary or undue risks. Each observer’s personal safety overrides all other considerations.

- Observers will carry any prescribed identification issued by the host government or election commission and will identify themselves to any authority upon request.

- Observers will exhibit the highest levels of personal discretion and professional behaviour at all times.

- Observers will attend all required mission briefings and debriefings and adhere to the deployment plan and all other instructions provided by the OSCE/ODIHR Election Observation Mission.
