COMMITMENTS:

- Reach out to and engage other male colleagues in joining the OSCE Men Engage Network.
- Systematically advocate for strong language on gender equality and women's empowerment in statements and decisions.
- Strive for a balance of work and family life, also by ensuring that meetings are not held in early mornings or late afternoons.
COMMITMENTS:

1. Support actions or initiatives taken by the Secretariat departments and OSCE executive structures aimed at promotion of gender equality and advancement of women’s rights, including policies and projects.
2. Ensure strong participation by men in debates and events on gender-related issues.
3. Include a gender-related objective in the work plans and performance appraisal of all staff members who report to me. Encourage other Directors to do the same.

{INSERT}
COMMITMENTS:

1. Commit to supporting implementation of UNSCR on Women, Peace and Security in relevant OSCE activities
2. Give increased attention to gender mainstreaming in all OSCE activities, including through continued support to the OSCE Secretariat’s Gender Section
3. Continue to encourage the Secretariat and participating States to nominate gender balanced participation of representatives and key speakers at OSCE events
COMMITMENTS:

- Increasing the susceptibility to gender issues across delegation members, e.g. through the appointment of the Belgian male gender contact point
- Ensuring a healthy work-life balance among delegation members by limiting the late-evening or early-morning meetings
- Amplifying gender initiatives within the OSCE, by assuring active participation in events and meetings, advocating for strong language in statements and decisions or reaching out through social media
AMBASSADOR MARCEL PESKO
Director of the OSCE Conflict Prevention Centre

COMMITMENTS:

- Will continue to strengthen the gender perspective across the conflict cycle
- Will strive for greater participation of women in the politico-military aspect of OSCE’s work
- Will lead by example on gender mainstreaming in day-to-day work of the CPC
COMMITMENTS:

1. Contribution to promoting implementation of UN Security Council Resolution (UNSCR) 1325 on Women, Peace and Security within the OSCE
2. Striving for greater participation of women in the economic and environmental dimension of the OSCE
3. Continuing to support OSCE Gender Section of the OSCE Secretariat
