Na/Ne Annual Media Award

British Council, British Embassy Yerevan, the OSCE Office in Yerevan and the UNFPA announce the Na/Ne annual media competition.

Journalists representing printed, online media, TV and radio companies of Armenia as well as independent journalists are eligible to submit their publications to take part in the competition. The published and broadcast publications and their authors may also be nominated by NGOs and individuals.

Materials must have been published or broadcast within the period from January to December 2010 and covered the activities and achievements, problems and challenges of women in political, economic and social spheres from the gender equality perspective. Publications may be presented in any of the journalistic genres.

Prizes will be awarded in the following categories:

1. TV programme
2. Printed article
3. Radio programme
4. Online or blog article
5. Photo or photo story
6. Social or commercial advertisement raising issues of a woman or gender equality.

Applications must be submitted until December 31, 2010. The results of the competition will be finalised by the end of January and presented during "Na/Ne" award ceremony, for detailed information please visit our website <http://www.britishcouncil.am>.

Please, submit the applications in hard copy to the British Council office: Hripsime Manukyan, 24 Baghramyan Avenue, or send via email to nane@britishcouncil.am. Please note that in case of electronic submissions scanned versions of the publications are required.
